Office Systems Administration (B.A.) (Administración de Sistemas de Oficinas)

The Bachelor of Arts in Office Systems Administration responds to the need for professionals of administrative support with knowledge in the operation of electronic systems, with the knowledge, techniques, procedures, and skills required to perform successfully in the office. This program offers the cultural background and the basic knowledge of office administration that allow the professional administrative support personnel to participate effectively in decision-making, analysis of data, managing and processing of information, oral and written communication and in establishing effective interpersonal relations. During the first years of studies, the student is offered the knowledge and skills of the associate degree, while during the last two years, there is emphasis on the knowledge and skills at the professional or bachelor degree levels. This program aims to prepare professional administrative support personnel with the skills and knowledge necessary to explore self-employment as a viable alternative in other professional careers. In addition, it aspires to prepare self-directed students that can work in their future job with a minimum of supervision and that have the ability to work in a team. The Bachelor of Arts in Office Systems Administration responds to the need in the modern workplace for professionals with the knowledge, techniques, and skills in electronic and other office management systems required to supervise an office successfully. This program enables students to participate effectively in decision-making, analysis of data, managing and processing information, communicating orally and in writing, and establishing effective interpersonal relations with employees in a cross-cultural environment.
