

Studies in Religion (B.A.)

The courses in religion are in harmony with the Christian ecumenical orientation of the University and the related official norms appearing in this Catalog under “Religious Life Policy”. The Institutional goal is to develop individuals with an ecumenical perspective who: 1) understand the Christian faith and its implications for our culture; 2) know and respect the most important aspects of the world’s major religions, and 3) know and appreciate the study of religion in a university curriculum which maintains a dynamic and harmonious relationship between faith and critical reasoning; and between religion and the arts and sciences. The Bachelor of Arts degree in Studies in Religion aims to forge facilitators capable of offering ecumenical instruction in agreement with the needs of society. The requirements for the Bachelor of Arts degree in Studies in Religion Marketing include 48 general education credits, 54 major course credits, and 20 elective credits.

This program is authorized to be offered online.
