Orlando Cyber Study Center Supplement to the General Undergraduate Catalog

2024-2025

Volume I August, 2024 Number XVII

Published by Inter American University of Puerto Rico, PO Box 363255, San Juan, Puerto Rico 00936-3255.

The University will make all reasonable efforts to maintain up-to-date information in this Supplement. However, after notice via email to students, the University reserves the right to change rules, revise tuition fees, service charges, requirements for programs of study, the requirements for degrees and academic distinctions, course content and any other arrangements that might affect students whenever it deems necessary or desirable.

Students are responsible for reading and understanding the academic, administrative and disciplinary policies and regulations, as well as the general requirements for the degree they hope to obtain, from the moment they register in the University. They are responsible for meeting the major requirements, once they declare said major including locating and completing internships (if required by the degree program) acceptable to the University. Students deciding to change their major will be responsible for complying with the requirements in effect at the time they declare the new major.

Graduation requirements, as well as academic curricula and programs may change while students are registered at the University. Normally, these changes will not be applied retroactively, albeit students have the option of completing the new requirements. When professional certifying or licensing agencies require changes for the corresponding certification or license, the necessary changes to the curricula or programs will be applicable immediately. It is the University's policy to guarantee equal opportunity to all in its educational programs, services and benefits. The University does not discriminate against anyone because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, handicap, age, marital status, physical appearance, political affiliation or any other classification protected by Title IX of the Amendments to the Education Act of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act or any other applicable federal or state law or regulation.

CHANGES IN TUITION AND FEES

The University reserves the right to change tuition fees and other charges when:

1. There is an increase in educational and general fees and/or mandatory transfers.
2. Budget projections indicate a possible increase in these costs.
3. After careful analysis of any particular situation, the University administration determines that such changes are reasonable and justified.

PAYMENTS

The total cost of tuition fees and other charges is payable at the time of registration.

The difference between the total cost of tuition, fees and other charges and the total amount of financial aid a student receives (except aid received under the Federal Work-Study Program) is payable at the time of registration.

Payments may be made by means of money orders, checks drawn to the order of "Inter American University of Puerto Rico" or in cash. Payment may also be made by MasterCard, Visa, American Express or ATM debit cards. In addition, payments may be made through Banco Popular de Puerto Rico at any of its branches, by mail or electronically.

Deferred Payment Arrangements

The University grants students the privilege of a deferred payment for 50% of the total cost of registration per semester or trimester upon signing a promissory note. To be eligible for deferred payment, students must have liquidated any debts from previous academic terms. In no case shall the total amount deferred exceed the balance of the debt after discounting the financial aid benefits or loans.

The chief executive officers of the academic units may, in exceptional cases, increase the percentage of the deferral if it is understood to be beneficial for the Institution after an analysis that indicates, with a reasonable degree of assurance, that the debt will be paid.

No deferred payment will be given for amounts less than $50.00.

The payment of the deferred total cost of tuition, fees and other charges becomes due seventy-five (75) days after the first day of class in a semester calendar. The deferred payment under a trimester or bimester calendar becomes due thirty (30) days after the first day of class. The deferred amount for semesters is due in a maximum of three equal installments, and in the case of trimesters and bimesters in one payment at the end of thirty (30) days of the deferral.

The award of a deferred payment carries a fee to cover part of the administrative expenses of this service. There will be a charge of 5% on an installment that is not paid by its due date.

It is the responsibility of each student to know when payments are due and to make arrangements accordingly.

Students who do not meet their financial commitments by the due date may be suspended and will not receive a grade in courses in which they have enrolled. Students who have not met their financial commitment will lose their rights to receive University service until their debts are removed in accordance with the Federal and Florida regulations.

THERE IS NO DEFERRED PAYMENT PLAN DURING THE SUMMER SESSIONS except by authorization of the Vice-President for Financial Affairs, Administration and Services. This deferred amount must be paid within thirty (30) days from the last day of classes of the summer session in which the aid was awarded.

Debts for other Reasons

When students or former students of the University are in debt to the University for any cause other than that of a deferred payment as explained in the Catalog, independently of any payment plan granted or any collection procedure that may be initiated or has been initiated, they lose their rights to receive University services until the debt is paid in full.

Students transferred from another educational institution who have debts with any of the federal financial aid programs will not be eligible for financial aid at this University.

ADJUSTMENTS AND REIMBURSEMENTS

Withdrawals

Per Semester and Trimester:

100% return of Tuition and Fees during the first week of class.

50% return of Tuition and Fees during the second week of class.

THERE WILL BE NO RETURN OF FUNDS AFTER THE SECOND WEEK OF CLASS

Per Summer Session:

100% return of Tuition and Fees during the first, second or by the third day of class.

50% return of Tuition and Fees during the fourth day of class.

THERE WILL BE NO RETURN OF FUNDS AFTER THE FOURTH DAY OF CLASS

These adjustments will apply to students that pay the total cost of registration in cash.

Institutional Policies and Procedures of Return of Funds Applicable to Students with a Total Withdrawal

The Policy for Return of Funds is applicable to all students who pay their registration in cash, with financial aid from Title IV Programs, or from other state or institutional programs or from health allied programs or with any other payment method and who officially withdraw from all courses, stop attending class, never attended class or are expelled from the University.

Return of Funds to Title IV Programs

Students who officially withdraw: To determine the applicable percentage the last date of withdrawal up to 60% of the term.

Students who stop attending class: The Policy for Return of Funds will be applied up to 60% of the term with a refund equivalent to 50% of the assigned funds.

Students who never attended class: One hundred percent (100%) will be refunded.

Return of Funds to State or Institutional Programs, Health Allied Programs or for Payments made in Cash or any other Method of Payment

For students who officially withdraw from all courses, stop attending class or never attended class, the return of funds previously accredited will be as follows:

Per Semester and Trimester:

100% return of funds during the first week of class.
50% return of funds during the second week of class.

THERE WILL BE NO RETURN OF FUNDS AFTER THE SECOND WEEK OF CLASS

Per Summer Session:

100% return of funds during the first, second or by the third day of class.
50% return of funds during the fourth day of class.

THERE WILL BE NO RETURN OF FUNDS AFTER THE FOURTH DAY OF CLASS

Students who pay with financial aid will be responsible for the difference resulting between registration costs and the financial aid award. In case a balance remains, this will be returned to the student.

THE UNIVERSITY AGREES TO REFUND ALL TUITION AND FEES IF THE STUDENT WITHDRAWS DURING THE FIRST WEEK OF CLASS OF A SEMESTER OR TRIMESTER ACADEMIC TERM OR FIRST, SECOND OR BY THE THIRD DAY OF THE SUMMER ACADEMIC TERM.

ALL REFUNDS WILL BE MADE WITHIN 30 DAYS OF WITHDRAWAL.

General Information

History of the University

Inter American University of Puerto Rico is a private institution with a Christian heritage and an ecumenical tradition. It is a non-profit organization that provides college instruction to youth of both sexes. It was originally founded in 1912 as the Polytechnic Institute of Puerto Rico by the Reverend J. William Harris and offered elementary and secondary education on the land occupied today by the San Germán Campus. The first college level courses were started in 1921. In 1927, the first group of students graduated with Bachelor's Degrees. In 1944, the Institution was accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools. It was the first four-year liberal arts college to be so accredited outside the continental limits of the United States. This accreditation has been maintained since. Approved for the training of students under the various GI Bill® programs. The programs of the University are authorized by the Council on Higher Education of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and by the Commonwealth's Department of Education, which certifies teachers for the public school system of Puerto Rico. Inter American University's School of Law is accredited by the American Bar Association and the School of Optometry, inaugurated in 1981, by the Council on Optometric Education. In March 1982, the first doctoral program was initiated.

Inter American University is the largest private university in Puerto Rico. Enrollment, in recent years, has been maintained at approximately 43,000 students. At the present time, about 21 percent of all the Island's college students and 35 percent of the students who go to the Island's private colleges attend Inter American University. Inter American University's tradition of public service, the geographical location of its instructional units and its continuing attention to student needs make it especially attractive and accessible to students

Governance

The highest governing body of Inter American University is a self-perpetuating Board of Trustees, whose members are elected by the Board itself without any outside intervention or tutelage of any kind.

The President is the chief executive and academic officer of the Institution. The Managerial Systemic Council is composed of the President of the University, Vice-Presidents, Chancellors, the Deans of the Schools of Law and Optometry, an Executive Secretary appointed by the President, the Executive Director of the Information System, the Director of the Office of the Juridical Advisor and the Director of the Office of Evaluation and Systemic Research. In addition, when affairs relevant to their functions are being considered by the Council, the following persons will attend as advisors: the President of the University Council, the Director of the Human Resources Office, the Director of the Office of Promotion and Recruitment and the Director of Planning and Systemic Development of Physical Plant.

Subject to the approval of the President of the University and of the Board of Trustees, the faculties of the School of Law and of the School of Optometry are responsible for their own academic programs and standards. Nevertheless, in all other respects, these professional schools are also subject to university-wide policies, norms and procedures.

The Academic Senates of the instructional units and the University Council, heirs of the Academic Senate created in 1966, and succeeded by the University Senate in 1973, are primarily concerned with the academic well being of the University through the process of academic articulation among the Campuses. The Academic Senates establish academic norms, subject to the ratification of the University Council and the concurrence of the President. Both bodies formulate recommendations on affairs related to educational, administrative and research policy.

Academic Degrees

Inter American University offers various undergraduate degree programs licensed by the Florida Department of Education's Commission for Independent Education at the Orlando Cyber Study Center through its Aguadilla, Arecibo, Barranquitas, Bayamon, Guayama, Metropolitan, Ponce and San German campuses located in Puerto Rico. Although undergraduate students will receive their distance learning instruction primarily in Spanish. They will matriculate through the Cyber Study Center, but will be deemed regular students of and enrolled in one of these campuses. Vision

Inter American University of Puerto Rico is a top quality higher education institution in pursuit of academic excellence, with emphasis on the formation of people with democratic and ethical values, framed in an ecumenical Christian context.

Goals of the University

The University faculty and the administration strive to achieve the following institutional goals:

1. To provide and maintain a positive atmosphere in the University community that will foster intellectual, social, and moral development based on the fundamental values of Christianity.
2. To promote a liberal education that will lead to the development of an educated person, well-versed in the different fields of human knowledge through the development of critical thinking, moral and civic responsibility, skills in social integration, scientific and mathematical knowledge and a sensibility for the arts that enhance a full life.

3. To succeed in having the student become functionally proficient in the use of Spanish or English and in developing an acceptable level of competency in the other language.
4. To stimulate student understanding and appreciation of Puerto Rico's cultural heritage, its origins, development, contributions and relations with the Caribbean, the Americas and the rest of the world and to foster the commitment to preserve it.
5. To offer a non-proselytizing cultural, ecumenical and moral religious education to increase student awareness of the place of religion in all civilizations and their understanding of its relationship to other disciplines.
6. To offer a variety of programs and services at the undergraduate, graduate, occupational and professional level in accordance with the changing necessities of the student population and of society in its global context.
7. To foster the ongoing growth and commitment of the faculty in the application of teaching methods, in the mastery of the subject matter and in their personal and professional development.
8. To foster the continuous development and improvement of the support personnel of the teaching process.
9. To succeed in having the support programs for the faculty and student services and activities work in harmony with the academic program so as to enhance the total education of the student.
10. To achieve constant progress, properly planned, in the field of new technology in support of the academic program, educational strategy, teaching, student services and administration.
11. To stimulate research and creativity in the entire academic community to enrich the Institution's educational endeavors, to increase human understanding of the environment and of the world and to generate new knowledge and technology.
12. To create an awareness of the social, cultural, economic, environmental, and political problems that confront Puerto Rican society and to stimulate the search for solutions to these problems by defining and discussing them.
13. To promote maximum coordination and cooperation with educational institutions, professional agencies and institutions in Puerto Rico and abroad that foster educational improvement at all levels.
14. To stimulate the members of the communities the Institution serves to recognize the value of continuing personal and professional development through a variety of University programs that will enrich their lives and increase their knowledge.
15. To assume a leadership role in promoting the cultural and social enrichment and the prosperity of the communities the Institution serves.
16. To develop an educational philosophy based on education for peace.

Religious Life Policy

Inter American University of Puerto Rico is an ecumenically oriented institution, but does not adhere to any one particular theology or ecclesiastical Body. Founded by Dr. John William Harris, a minister of the Presbyterian Church, Inter American University maintains a historic, friendly and enriching association with that communion, as well as with other Christian groups in accordance with its ecumenical spirit.

Inter American University of Puerto Rico is a community of higher education dedicated to a comprehensive search for truth within an environment of responsible freedom and through the encouragement of a mature academic life which guarantees true freedom of investigation.

Within this context, religion is studied in the University as an academic discipline designed to engage in fruitful dialog with other university disciplines.

In affirming its commitment to the Christian ecumenical ideal, the University dedicates itself to the renewal and reaffirmation not only of its own Christian heritage, but also the culture within which it is situated and which it serves. This does not oblige the acceptance of all the details of our Christian past nor of all the elements of modern Christianity. Nevertheless, the University has fostered and will continue to foster the convergence of all Christians in the one faith centered about the person of Jesus Christ as He is made known to us in the apostolic tradition of the Scriptures as the One whom Christians regard as decisive, definite and normative in man's relations with God and his fellow men and society. The University affirms its conviction that to be a Christian today implies, on the one hand, knowledge of and obedience to the Gospel and, on the other hand, identification with the universal church by means of an individual commitment to a particular Christian communion.

The ecumenical posture of the University involves openness to society, science, technology and a plurality of faiths; it involves an integral education of each individual so he or she may exercise a vocation within his or her community in a responsible and productive way; it involves a commitment to serve though not to dominate society; and it involves the development of friendliness, fellowship and understanding to bridge human barriers.

The University promotes the following Christian-ecumenical principles and values:

WE BELIEVE IN GOD AS A SUPREME BEING

God is the Supreme Being who created all that exists. His power and presence are revealed in the person of his Son Jesus, the Savior, and in the Holy Spirit, that guides the community of faith.

WE BELIEVE IN JESUS

We accept that the apostolic tradition of the Scriptures recognizes and accepts Jesus as decisive, definite and normative for humans' relations with God, their fellow men, family and society. Since He is the Savior and Mediator of Humanity, it is our commitment to continue fostering the convergence of all Christians through the one faith around the person of Jesus.

WE BELIEVE IN LIFE

We affirm that life is a gift of God. We urge that all human beings value their lives so they may be able to give their best to the country, family and society. We promote the preservation of life, and, therefore, promote a Christian consciousness in education.

WE BELIEVE IN THE FAMILY

We believe that the family is the essential social nucleus where the initial values that shape the person are developed. We commit ourselves to reinforce these values, from their Biblical foundation, to help each human being to achieve the complete life and extend it to others.

WE BELIEVE IN SERVICE

We affirm our ecumenical Christian ideal and devote our efforts to renew and reaffirm service to our country, society, family and fellow men.

WE BELIEVE IN THE IDENTITY OF THE CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY OF FAITH

We affirm that the conviction of being Christian implies knowledge of and obedience to the Word of God and, also, identification and commitment to the Church and to the person's particular Christian community.

WE BELIEVE IN INTEGRAL EDUCATION

Our Christian ecumenical position provides openness to society, science and technology, with an integral mentality, an attitude of respect and a moral conduct in harmony with our values.

We promote the integral education of each person for carrying out his vocation in a responsible way and with moral conduct to improve the community.

We are a community of higher education in an integral search for the truth, within an environment of freedom, through the encouragement of a mature academic life that guarantees the true freedom of investigation.

WE BELIEVE IN SERVING OUR FELLOW MEN

We believe that to be Christian it is to have and show a commitment to serve others based on love and not on the dominion of society, but rather on promoting friendship, solidarity, tolerance and understanding to bridge human barrier.

WE BELIEVE IN THE STUDY OF THE CHRISTIAN RELIGION

We promote the study of the Christian religion as an academic discipline in which a fruitful dialog with the other academic disciplines is maintained.

We will continue to strengthen the development of the religion studies program by providing All students the opportunity to acquire an understanding of the Christian faith and its implications for our culture.

To achieve this, Inter American University of Puerto Rico will continue and strengthen the development of its programs of religious studies and will provide to all its students an opportunity to understand the Christian faith and its implications for our culture; the University will furnish information about the most important aspects of the world's major religions to its students and will encourage them to appreciate these religions within their historic, theological and philosophic context. In this way, the search for faith and for the means to humanize mankind may be seen as a relevant option in a world striving for greater understanding and happiness.

The commitment of Inter American University to its Christian Heritage, as well as to its academic mission, will manifest itself through the development of an ecumenical program of religious life.

In accordance with this basic religious philosophy for the academic study of religion and for the development of religious activities, Inter American University, by its act and works, will:

1. Encourage the expression of the Christian principles set forth here,
2. Require the academic study of fundamentals of the Christian faith, and
3. Require each instructional unit to establish an Office of Religious Life, which will serve the entire University community.

University Anti-hazing Policy

Inter American University of Puerto Rico is committed to promoting a safe and healthy environment for its students, faculty, staff and visitors. In addition, it is dedicated to promoting an environment that fosters respect for the dignity and rights of the entire University community and the community in general. In harmony with this vision, the University hereby establishes the following anti-hazing policy for its Cyber Study Center located in Orlando, Florida to ensure that the search for knowledge can be carried out in the Center with the highest standards of integrity, free from conduct that could result in harm to any individual of the internal or external communities.

Inter American University will not tolerate hazing activities by any individual, group, team, or recognized student organization. The subjecting of any person to and/or encouraging any person to commit an act that violates human dignity, the General Student Regulations, or the law for the purpose of initiating, promoting, fostering, or confirming any form of affiliation with a group or organization is prohibited. The express or implied consent of participants or victims will not be a defense.

The University will enforce this policy through internal disciplinary procedures, the external prosecution of alleged offenders, or both. Individuals who participate in acts of hazing will be held accountable under this policy. The internal sanctions or remedial actions imposed on offenders will be those established in the policy and will be appropriate to the circumstances. For more information, call the Orlando Cyber Study Center at 407-218-4164.

As used in this section, "hazing" means any action or situation that recklessly or intentionally endangers the mental or physical health or safety of a student for purposes including, but not limited to, initiation or admission into or affiliation with any organization operating under the sanction of a postsecondary institution. "Hazing" includes, but is not limited to, pressuring or coercing the student into violating state or federal law, any brutality of a physical nature, such as whipping, beating, branding, exposure to the elements, forced consumption of any food, liquor, drug, or other substance, or other forced physical activity that could adversely affect the physical health or safety of the student, and also includes any activity that would subject the student to extreme mental stress, such as sleep deprivation, forced exclusion from social contact, forced conduct that could result in extreme embarrassment, or other forced activity that could adversely affect the mental health or dignity of the student. Hazing does not include customary athletic events or other similar contests or competitions or any activity or conduct that furthers a legal and legitimate objective.

In addition, Inter American University defines hazing to include any action that intentionally or recklessly causes or poses a substantial risk of harm to the mental or physical health or safety of one or more persons.

Pursuant to s. 1006.63(2), Florida Statutes, a person commits hazing, a third degree felony, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, Florida Statutes, when he or she intentionally or recklessly commits any act of hazing as defined above upon another person who is a member of or an applicant to any type of student organization and the hazing results in serious bodily injury or death of such other person.

Pursuant to s. 1006.63(3), Florida Statutes, a person commits hazing, a first degree misdemeanor, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, Florida Statutes, when he or she intentionally or recklessly commits any act of hazing as defined above upon another person who is a member of or an applicant to any type of student organization and the hazing creates a substantial risk of physical injury or death to such other person.

To make a report of hazing, or to determine whether a proposed activity constitutes or will constitute hazing, contact the Cyber Study Center at 407-218-4164.

Service Members Opportunity College (SOC)

The University participates in the network of colleges and universities in the United States and abroad known as Service members Opportunity College (SOC). Member institutions are open to men and women on active duty in any of the military services and to their dependents. Information regarding the SOC program at Inter American University may be obtained from the Registrar Office.

Educational Resources

The University stresses the importance of developing educational resources that complement the teaching function. As a result, several programs have been implemented to integrate the latest technological advances to the University's educational services.

Information Access Center (Library)

Each academic unit has an adequately staffed and equipped Information Access Center. These Centers are organized to function as a coordinated system. An on-line catalog provides access to all University bibliographical resources, as well as audiovisual and electronic resources that are made available for computer-based research.

The Centers provide remote access to electronic databases through the Internet to students, faculty and administrators of the University. The system collection contains more than one million volumes of printed, audiovisual and electronic resources.

Publications

Inter American University has a variety of publications to facilitate communication within the University community, with alumni and with other academicians and academic communities.

Interamericana is the official publication of Inter American University. It is published four times a year and its approximately 30,000 copies are distributed to students, faculty, administration, alumni and friends of the Institution. This publication covers activities from all instructional units and features special interviews and current events affecting education or the development of the Institution, as well as general information regarding the faculty and administration.

Videoenlace Interactivo is a publication of the Vice-Presidency for Academic and Student Affairs and Systemic Planning. Its objective is to share the experiences of professors and students in the field of distance learning. It serves as a forum for dialog and the exchange of ideas in the use of technology in the educational process.

The Law Review, edited by students, is the official publication of the School of Law. Its articles are written by professors and students from the School of Law, judges and practicing lawyers. Because of the careful selection of its articles, the Law Review of Inter American University's School of Law is highly esteemed in the field of law.

Homines is published by the Metropolitan Campus. It contains critical analyses of current thoughts and events relevant to national and international affairs in the vast field of the social sciences. It is published twice a year.

Prisma is published annually by the Arecibo Campus. It has an interdisciplinary focus for the purpose of fomenting research and literary creativity in the University community. Essays, critiques, poems and short stories are published.

Surisla is published annually by the Ponce Campus. It transmits the literary works of the University community, as well as the extramural contributions through an interdisciplinary focus.

Alumni Association

The Alumni Association Poly-Inter is an organization of graduates and former students who attended Inter American University or Polytechnic Institute. The Association keeps its members informed of University activities and involves them in its development. The Association is governed by a Board of Directors composed of 29 members, nine of which correspond to the alumni chapters of the different campuses and two members to the professional schools. In addition, the Association is represented on the Board of Trustees of the University by an Alumni Trustee. Each year, the Alumni Association holds two primary activities: the celebration of Founders Day and the honoring of distinguished alumni.

Description of the Orlando Cyber Study Center

Accreditation

Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools accredits Inter American University of Puerto Rico including its nine undergraduate and graduate campuses located in Puerto Rico in the cities of Aguadilla, Arecibo, Barranquitas, Bayamon, Fajardo, Guayama, Ponce, San Juan (Metropolitan Campus) and San German, as well as The University School of Law and School of Optometry located in Puerto Rico. Middle States also recognizes the Cyber Study Center located in Orlando, Florida as an other instructional site for all the undergraduate and graduate campuses that offer degree programs through it. Students enrolled through the Center in one campus may take select classes offered by other campuses at the Center.

Academic Information

Admission Requirements to Distance Learning Programs

The admission requirements for students interested in undergraduate studies totally through distance learning are presented below. The information includes: (a) Admission of Students from the Educational System of the United States of America and Puerto Rico, (b) Admission by Transfer from Other University Level Institutions, (c) Admission of Students from Other Educational Systems, (d) Special Admission of Students not Interested in a Degree or Academic Title and (e) Conditional Admission.

A. Admission of Students from the Educational System of the United States of America and Puerto Rico

Students from the educational system of the United States of America and Puerto Rico must:

1. Present evidence of graduation from an accredited secondary school or its equivalent with a minimum grade point index of 2.00;
2. Present the scores obtained on one of the following admission tests, or equivalent:
 - a. Test for Evaluation and Admission to University Studies (PEAU) administered by the College Board of Puerto Rico;

- b. Scholastic Aptitude Test (the SAT) administered by the College Board in the United States of America; or
 - c. American College Test (ACT);
3. Obtain a minimum academic index score calculated as follows: The minimum required average test score on all of the parts of the PEAU is 400, on the SAT is 272, and on the ACT is 6.12. The minimum test score is factored together with the grade point average to develop an academic index score. This is done by adding to the average test score the high school grade average times 200. Using this computation, the minimum acceptable admission index score for the PEAU test takers is 800, for SAT test takers is 672, and for ACT test takers is 406.12.
3. Be interviewed by the means available when deemed necessary.

B. Admission by Transfer from Other University-Level Institutions

Candidates for admission by transfer from other university-level institutions must:

1. Submit the admission application with an official copy of the academic transcript from the university or college of origin. The copy of the transcript must be sent directly from the offices of the registrar of those institutions to the appropriate Admissions Office of Inter American University.
2. Have at least twelve transferable semester credits with a minimum grade of "C" from another accredited institution. When an academic program has different grade requirements, students must meet these minimum grade requirements.
3. Meet the particular admission norms of the academic programs for which admission is requested.
4. Meet the minimum academic index score indicated in Item A above. All courses taken will be considered in determining the fulfillment of this requirement.
5. Not be under suspension for disciplinary reasons by their former institution.
6. Students who have not taken courses in English, must present their College Board results for placement in the different levels of English.

Students who have approved less than twelve transferable credits in the institution of origin, will be evaluated in agreement with the norms applicable to applicants without university studies. If they are admitted, they will receive credit for the transferable academic work of the other institution.

TRANSFERABILITY OF CREDIT IS AT THE DISCRETION OF THE ACCEPTING INSTITUTION. IT IS THE STUDENT'S RESPONSIBILITY TO CONFIRM WHETHER OR NOT CREDITS WILL BE ACCEPTED BY ANOTHER INSTITUTION OF THE STUDENT'S CHOICE.

FOR A STUDENT TO EARN A DEGREE FROM THE UNIVERSITY AT LEAST 25% OF THE CREDITS HOURS REQUIRED TO SATISFY THE PROGRAM REQUIEREMENTS MUST BE COMPLETED AT THE INSTITUTION AWARDDING THE CREDENTIAL.

C. Admission of Homeschooled Students

Homeschooled students interested in applying for admission to the University may do so if they meet the following requirements:

1. Meet the minimum academic index score indicated in Item A above. All courses taken will be considered in determining the fulfillment of this requirement.
2. Complete a home education program according to s. 1002.41, Florida Statutes.
3. Present evidence of graduation from an accredited secondary school with equivalency certified by the Puerto Rico Department of Education.

In both cases, if deemed necessary by the University, an interview with the student will be required.

D. Admission of Foreign Students Without University Studies

Students from educational systems outside the United States and Puerto Rico with no prior university studies must present official evidence of having satisfactorily completed, in their country, secondary studies equivalent to graduation from high school in Puerto Rico or Florida and bear the burden to prove that they meet essentially the same admission standards as the University's other students. The official evidence of studies must be submitted in English or Spanish, properly authenticated by the appropriate authorities of the country of origin.

Foreign students interested in entering the University must submit their admission applications through the Cyber Study Center directly to the academic unit to which they wish to be admitted. Inter American University reserves the right to interview the applicants as part of the admission requirements.

E. Other Admissions and Course Credit Opportunities

Admission of Veterans

The center is approved for the training of students under the various GI Bill® programs. Veterans intending to enroll and receive VA educational benefits should submit an application through the Cyber Study Center to the Office of the Registrar of the campus in which they intend to pursue studies.

VA Pending Payment Compliance

In accordance with Title 38 US Code 3679 subsection (e), this school adopts the following additional provisions for any students using U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Post 9/11 G.I. Bill® (Ch. 33) or Vocational Rehabilitation & Employment (Ch. 31) benefits, while payment to the institution is pending from the VA. This school will not:

- Prevent the student's enrollment;
- Assess a late penalty fee to the student;

- Require the student to secure alternative or additional funding;
- Deny the student access to any resources (access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities) available to other students who have satisfied their tuition and fee bills to the institution.

However, to qualify for this provision, such students may be required to:

- Produce the VA Certificate of Eligibility (COE) by the first day of class;
- Provide a written request to be certified;
- Provide additional information needed to properly certify the enrollment as described in other institutional policies

Admission of Special Students

Special students are: (1) students in good standing at another institution of higher learning who, with due authorization of their home institution, wish to study at Inter American University to fulfill requirements of their home institution, (2) people who, for their professional improvement or personal fulfillment, want to take courses, but are not interested in obtaining a degree, or (3) teachers from the Department of Education of Puerto Rico who want to take courses to satisfy requirements of that department. Students from other institutions of higher education should present an official certification from their home institution, indicating the courses for which they will receive credit at their own institution. Teachers admitted as special students should present a letter from their Superintendent of Schools certifying that they are teachers with university degrees. Special students do not have to submit transcripts of credits to be admitted.

All applicants interested in taking courses, but not in receiving a degree or certificate from this University may be admitted upon meeting admission requirements. Any applicant who later decides to continue studies toward a university degree or certificate must meet all requirements and all steps in the University's admission procedures. Special students are not eligible to receive financial aid under Title IV.

All non-traditional study modalities will be available for students admitted under these criteria.

Readmission to the University

Students who discontinue studies for two semesters or more, four trimesters or more or eight bimesters or more must request readmission at the Office of the Registrar of the campus to which they seek admission. The application may be submitted with the assistance of the Cyber Study Center through traditional means or through electronic media (Web, fax, email, or other available media). The Office of the Registrar, after analyzing the official documents, will determine the students' eligibility for readmission, using the norms established by each campus. All requests should be made at least one month before the following enrollment period. The Dean of Studies will consider exceptions individually.

Students who have passed courses at another institution of higher learning should present an official transcript of the credits taken. This evidence will be submitted to the Admissions Office for evaluation.

Students readmitted will follow the General Catalog and the rules and regulations in effect at the time of their readmission.

Students interested in readmission to the University through the Adult Higher Education Program must comply with the requirements established in that section of the General Catalog.

Intra-University Transfers

Students who want to transfer from one campus to another must meet the admission requirements of the program and campus to which they request admission. Students must request a transfer through the Cyber Study Center from the Office of the Registrar of the campus in which they studied. The application may be submitted through traditional means or through electronic media (Web, fax, email, or other available media) After approval of the transfer, students will be referred to the appropriate academic advisor in agreement with their course of studies.

University Credits through Advanced Placement Testing

Entering students may obtain university credits upon fulfilling the following:

1. Have obtained 3 or more points on a 5 point scale on the College Board Advanced Placement Test. Six university credits will be given for each test.
2. Have obtained scores recommended by the American Council on Education on College Examination Program tests.
3. Have taken in British areas the General Certificate of Education (GCE) Advanced Level Examination and have obtained a grade of "Pass."

F. Special Admission of Students not Interested in a Degree or Academic Title

Students interested in taking courses totally through distance learning, but not interested in a degree or university title, must present evidence of having satisfactorily completed the secondary studies equivalent to the high school graduation requirements in Puerto Rico.

ALL STAFF WHO RECRUIT PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS OR WHO PARTICIPATE IN THE ADMISSION OF PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS HAVE COMPLETED AN ADMISSIONS TRAINING PROGRAM IN COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 6E-1.0032(12), F.A.C.

Distance Learning

Inter American University of Puerto Rico recognizes that technology and information systems are essential in the transformation of experiences that promote learning. Likewise, they are strategic components of the institutional infrastructure for supporting academic development and facilitating management. Inter American University is moving toward the transformation of the teaching and learning processes by developing new educational emphases through the incorporation of technology. Students will assume more responsibility for their learning, the faculty will become facilitating agents and the curriculum will be made more flexible with multiple modalities.

In this way, the Institution increases the extent of its academic programs, maximizes its resources, reaches beyond the limits of the traditional classroom and promotes and provides new alternatives for continuous education.

Distance learning is conceived as a formal educational process in which the major part of the instruction occurs in Spanish when the student and the instructor are not in the same place at the same time. This is a planned experience in which the variety of synchronic and asynchronous technologies such as Internet, videoconferences, interactive videoconferences in audio and in video, and other modalities are used to promote learning when the student is at a different location from that of the professor. These experiences are designed to stimulate interaction and verification of learning.

Objectives of Distance Learning

1. To utilize technology as an instrument to increase and strengthen the University mission in its global context.
2. To develop new approaches, so that students may assume greater responsibility for their learning and faculty may become better facilitating agents of the learning process.
3. To share and maximize academic programs and institutional resources beyond the limits of the Campuses.
4. To promote equal opportunity for information access beyond the limits of time and space.
5. To increase the student population to which Inter American University offers academic programs.
6. To facilitate the establishment of collaborative agreements and consortia with other educational institutions in and outside Puerto Rico with the purpose of strengthening and sharing academic offerings.
7. To strengthen and enrich developmental and professional programs.
8. To meet the particular needs of students with disabilities.
9. To meet the multiple needs of a heterogeneous student population.
10. To meet the particular needs of the adult population.
11. To extend institutional services beyond geographic frontiers.

Technologies and Media Used in Distance Learning

Distance learning uses diverse technologies for the transmission of video, voice and data; thus, making possible a teaching and learning process beyond the limits of time and space. There are a variety of courses using these technologies as the basis for the learning experience; for example, interactive video conference courses, televised courses, radio courses, online courses, courses recorded on CD-ROM, desktop conferencing and courses on the Internet. All courses differ in the means used to achieve teaching objectives, the teaching process for promoting the development of concepts and skills, the degree of interaction between faculty-student and student-student, and the assessment and certification of learning.

Inter American University has incorporated various technologies and media into its teaching and learning process. These include interactive videoconference, courses on-line, and Internet courses.

Proctored Evaluations

Proctored evaluations are evaluations administered by authorized personnel other than the course professor in the distance learning modality. The evaluations are administered in a locality accessible to the student. Each campus will establish the rules and procedures for the administration of proctored evaluations in distance courses.

Interactive Videoconference

Interactive videoconference courses are courses offered by the synchronic modality involving interactive transmission of video, voice and data. The course originates in one place with participating students in remote localities. The faculty-student and student-student interaction occurs in a simultaneous or synchronic manner. The instructor may make use of electronic presentations and other computerized materials, as well as segments of video and other educational materials. This implies previous and extensive planning and development of such materials. In addition, the prior sending of materials for each session by means of fax, web, or e-mail is required. Also, the presence of a facilitator or official in charge of the discipline (for example, a teaching assistant or graduate student in an internship) and compatible videoconference equipment are required at the remote sites.

Courses on Line

Courses on-line are offered through the World Wide Web. Students have computers with access to the Internet where they will receive materials and send their assignments and other work. The communication and interactivity between faculty-student and student-student is attained primarily through Internet, e-mail, discussion forums, and chats in Spanish. This modality requires the development of all materials and their inclusion in a Web server prior to the initiation of the course offering. If students desire to access the courses from outside the University, the Institution guarantees them remote access to information resources from the Cyber Study Center, but students are responsible for having their own computers to gain home access.

Internet Courses

Internet courses are online asynchronous courses, meaning students are not required to attend at a set time, but rather at their convenience may access pre-recorded lectures and digital curriculum materials. The communication and interactivity between students and other students or faculty is primarily via e-mail, discussion boards, social networking and collaborative documents at a time of the student's choosing. Faculty must respond to students within 48 hours. Students must have personal computers with access to the Internet to communicate with the instructor or visit the Cyber Study Center to use computers available to students there on a first-come, first-served basis during regular business hours.

In summary, the combination of media and technology and their complementary use in the traditional classroom promise to enrich learning experiences at the University.

Combined Study Courses

Combined study courses are courses in which the student combines the modalities of class attendance and study on-line. The combined study modality offers students the opportunity to take fifty percent of the teaching-learning process through direct contact (faculty-students) and fifty percent of this process through the World Wide Web in each academic term. Each student has access to a computer with connection to the Internet, where the student receives the materials and sends the assignments and other class work. The communication and interaction (faculty-students) take place primarily in the class attendance sessions. For this reason, class attendance is fundamental and obligatory in order to give continuity to the works assigned on the Web.

Service of the Registrar

The Office of the Registrar is responsible for registration, maintenance of all official academic records of students, the issuance of transcripts and certification of studies and certification that students have met graduation requirements. The Office of the Registrar also issues study certification upon student request. There is an Office of the Registrar at each campus of the University. Students at the Cyber Study Center may fill out forms requesting services of the Registrar at one of the Campuses through the Internet.

Registration and Program Changes

Students will register on the day and hour designated for this purpose. After registration, students will be able to make changes to their class programs during the period specified in the Academic Calendar.

1. Program modifications during the period of changes: To add or drop a course or change a course section during the period of change designated on the Academic Calendar, students should complete a change-of-program form or submit their petition for a change through electronic media. This should be presented or sent to the Office of the Registrar to be officially processed.
2. Dropping courses: After the period of program change has ended, a student will be able to drop one or more courses (partial withdrawal or total withdrawal). For partial withdrawal, the student will first consult the professor of the course and will present a completed partial withdrawal form to the Registrar's Office. For total withdrawal from the University, please consult the section "Withdrawal from the University" of this Catalog. Students may drop a class or completely withdraw from the University until the last day of class as established in the Academic Calendar.
3. When a student stops attending a course, and does not qualify for the grade of "Incomplete" or "F," the professor will enter the symbol "UW" in the column

“Grade” and will indicate the student’s last date of class attendance or the student’s last activity related to the course in the column “Last Attend Date,” following the format of the BANNER System: DD/MON/YYYY (day, month, year).

4. Students who never participated in the class will receive the administrative symbol “AW”.

University Policy Regarding Student and Alumni Academic Records

The University, in compliance with state and federal law, the “Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act” (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. s.1232g), provides students and alumni access to their academic files, the right to request that the information contained in those files be amended, and the right to exercise certain controls over the disclosure of academic information.

1. Students and alumni have the right to inspect and review their academic files by making a request in writing of the file custodian and indicating the file they wish to review. The Executive Director of the Cyber Center, will make the necessary arrangements, so that the student or alumni may review the files within the presence of staff. Except as otherwise stated herein, students may not make copies of the documents contained in their files. The documents received by the University become the exclusive property of the University.
2. Transcripts, study certificates and certification of degrees are available to students from the Office of Registrar. The cost of each transcript is $6.00. Transcripts requested for transfer to another educational institution, for continuing graduate studies, completing the requirements of certifying agencies or for the purpose of employment are sent directly to the address provided by the student in the request. In no case will transcripts requested for these purposes be delivered to the student. Requests for transcripts by students whose files are active will be processed within a reasonable time that should not exceed three weeks, under normal circumstances. Requests for transcripts of students whose files are inactive require a longer processing time.
3. Students and alumni have the right to request that incorrect information contained in their academic files be corrected. Interested students or alumni must present a written request to the University official in charge of the file, indicate the part of the file to be corrected and explain the mistake. If the University decides not to correct the file, the student or alumnus will be notified of this decision in writing and the person will be informed of the right to request an informal hearing.
4. Students or alumni have the right to prevent the University from disclosing education records and personal information found in the academic files, except in those cases where FERPA authorizes disclosure. These cases include the following:
 - a. Disclosure of information to Institution officials who, in the regular performance of their functions, have to work with these files "Institutional officials" are taken to mean administrative or teaching employees, persons contacted by the University, members of the Board of Trustees and student members of special committees.

- b. Disclosure of Directory Information unless the University receives a written request from the student. The University has designated the following data as Directory information: student or alumni name, address, major and year of study. Students and alumni have the right to prevent the University from disclosing Directory information to third parties. The disclosure to third parties includes the release of information to the Armed Forces. If students or alumni wish to prevent their information from being disclosed to the United States Armed Forces, it is necessary that they express their desire that no information be disclosed to third parties. To prevent Directory information from being disclosed to third parties, it is necessary that students or alumni submit their request to this effect, in writing, to the Office of the Registrar of their academic unit. In order for the request to be effective for the academic year, it is important that students submit the request September 1st of that year.
- c. Disclosure of information pursuant to written authorization or court order. The University will release student or alumni information to third parties such as universities with the student's written authorization unless otherwise prohibited by law. The University will also release student or alumni information pursuant to court order or subpoena.
- d. Disclosure of information to the parents of dependent children. Parents must present evidence of their status as father or mother. The University assumes undergraduate students are economically dependent upon their parents; therefore, in some cases the University may disclose information without the consent of the student to parents who request it. Undergraduate students who are not economically dependent upon their parents must present this evidence to the Office of the Registrar to prevent information from being released to their parents. Information on graduate students or alumni will not be given to parents without the graduates' consent.
- e. Emergency cases. These are cases in which the health or security of a student, alumni or other person is in danger, necessitating release of student or alumni information.
- f. Immigration and Naturalization Service. The University is obliged to give information to the Immigration Service and some other agencies regarding certain foreign students or alumni.

If students or alumni believe that the University has not complied with these obligations, they have the right to file a complaint with the Department of Education, Family Policy Compliance Officer, 400 Maryland Avenue SW, Washington D.C. 20202-4605.

Student Records

At the end of each academic term, the Registrars will mail grade reports to their respective students. Students who believe there are errors in these reports should notify the appropriate Registrar, in writing. The deadline to submit these claims is the date established for the removal of grades of "Incomplete" in the following academic term of the same type. A student who does not receive a grade report should contact the corresponding Office of the Registrar.

Upon completion of the degree, the academic transcript will indicate the degree and the major and minor concentrations as certified by the Council on Higher Education.

Diplomas

Diplomas must be claimed by graduates at the Office of the Registrar no later than one year following graduation. The University will not be responsible for diplomas after that date.

Change of Address

When students register, they are required to file their mailing address with the Office of the Registrar. Changes of address should be reported immediately to the Registrar. If this address is not kept up-to-date, the University will not be responsible for notifications sent to the student.

Any notice, official or otherwise, mailed to a student's address as it appears on the records shall be deemed sufficient notice.

Class Attendance

Meeting the requirements established for courses offered by non-traditional modalities are essential elements of the educational process. In the same manner, the fulfillment of requirements is compulsory for all courses offered by non-traditional modalities. Students are responsible for completing course requirements as stipulated in the course syllabus.

Students, who have not participated in any academically-related activities as defined in the course syllabus during the two weeks of the academic semester or its equivalent, will be dropped administratively from the course. This includes courses offered through nontraditional modalities. The instructor, "after receiving the class lists", will submit, in writing, the names of all such students to the Office of the Registrar through the Department Chairperson. For administrative purposes, these administrative drops will be considered equal to withdrawals for which the student has applied, as established in the Adjustments and Reimbursements Section.

Also, Inter American University requires its faculty to report in the electronic register the last day of participation in course activities of those students who dropped class without having withdrawn officially from the University. The administrative action symbol "UW" will be used to identify these students.

The last date of class attendance to an academically-related activity will be used to determine the applicable refund for students who withdraw unofficially. This arrangement is established in harmony with University regulations.

Declaration of Major (Regular Program)

Students will declare a major in one of the programs authorized for the campus upon admission to the University. Once they are admitted, students will receive appropriate professional and academic guidance related to the program of their interest from the Cyber Study Center administrative staff with assistance from the campus through which a degree program is offered.

Students who justify a change of major will follow the procedure for declaration of major in the concerned department.

The declaration of major does not imply admission to the program. Admission to a program depends upon satisfying the requirements of that program.

The first change of major will be free of cost; a fee will be charged for each change thereafter.

Withdrawal from the University

Students wishing to withdraw from the University must email any of the following University contacts: the Executive Director of the Cyber Study Center, a professional advisor, or any other person designated by the Chief Executive Office of the academic unit in which the student is enrolled. Students must disclose their student number, their complete name and the academic term from which they wish to withdraw. The University contact will fill out a withdrawal form and submit it, along with the e-mail, to the Management of Registration Services Office. The date of withdrawal will be the date on which the student sent the e-mail. When a student withdraws, the criteria that will be used for determining grades are outlined in the section titled "Registration and Program Changes." The University refund policy for students who withdraw is outlined in the section titled "Adjustments and Reimbursements."

Discontinuation of Academic Offerings

The University is committed to the renewal of its academic offerings, which includes the expansion, review, modification or discontinuation of academic program offerings authorized by the Council on Higher Education of Puerto Rico and Florida Commission for Independent Education. In case any academic unit of the University decides not to continue offering some academic program or in the event of a licensure or accreditation problem, students will have options available to them to complete the degree requirements. Courses on-line, study by contract, independent study tutoring or other nontraditional modalities may be among the options.

Withdrawal of a Course from the Schedule

The University will make every reasonable effort to offer courses as announced, but it reserves the right to withdraw a course from the schedule, when necessary.

Course Load

The University uses semester credit hour. One credit hour is awarded for every 15 class hours per academic session.

A normal course load is 12-18 credit hours per semester, 9-12 per trimester or 6-9 per bimester. Students may not take more than 18 credit hours per semester, more than 12 per trimester or 9 per bimester, unless their overall grade point index is 3.00 or higher. In order to take more than the normal course load, students must have the written consent of their advisor and of the Dean of Studies of their campus. Students on academic probation because of an unsatisfactory grade point index are limited to a program of 12 credit hours per semester, 9 per trimester or 6 per bimester.

During each of the four-week summer sessions, students may enroll for a maximum of two courses, provided that the number of credit hours does not exceed 7 per session.

Students who register without written authorization for credits in excess of the maximum stated above in any academic term shall receive credit only for authorized credits and shall forfeit payment made for unauthorized credits. In such cases, students shall choose the courses for which they wish to receive credit. Students are classified as full-time or part-time according to the number of credits in which they are enrolled. Under the semester and trimester calendars, these classifications are as follows:

- Full-time - twelve or more credits.
- Three-fourth time - from nine to eleven credits.
- Half-time - from six to eight credits.
- Less than half-time - five or less credits.

A “credit hour” is “a unit consisting of a minimum of fifteen hours of instruction appropriate to the level of credential sought, during a semester, plus a reasonable period of time outside of instruction which the institution requires a student to devote to preparation for learning experiences, such as preparation for instruction, study of course material, or completion of educational projects.”

Repeating Courses

Students will have the right to repeat courses when not satisfied with their grades. In case a course is no longer offered at the University, it will be substituted with the new course created in the curricular revision or with an equivalent course approved by the Vice-President for Academic and Student Affairs and Systemic Planning. The highest grade and its corresponding credits will remain on the student’s transcript and lower grades will be changed to an "R" (repeated) course. When students repeat a course and obtain the same grade as in the previous term, the grade of the most recent term will appear on the transcript. The administration action symbol "R" and its corresponding credits will not be considered in determining if a student has satisfied the graduation requirements. Courses repeated after graduation are not considered in the computation of the graduation grade point index.

Auditing Courses

Students wishing to enroll in courses for audit must do so during the official registration period of the academic term or during the official period for changing courses. Such students must pay the course fee for auditing. Students who have not applied for admission should do so before registering as audit students.

Study in Other Institutions of Higher Education

Students desiring to take courses in other institutions of higher education either in or outside of the United States and Puerto Rico must obtain previous authorization from the Dean of Studies, who will evaluate the description of the courses to be authorized in the other institution to ascertain their equivalency with the requirements of this University. A maximum of 15 credits may be authorized for a Bachelor’s Degree and 9 for an Associate Degree. The authorized credits obtained will be considered as University credits for all purposes. Courses will not be authorized for students who have transferred from other institutions with 90 or more credits.

Grading System

Course grades indicate the degree of student achievement in any given course. The University has established a quality point system to be used in accumulating and summarizing these grades. This quality point system is used to determine the minimum degree of general competence for graduation and for continuing the program at any level and to assign special honors to students who excel. Grades are reported in accordance with the following grading system:

A	Superior attainment; 4 honor points per credit hour.
B	Above-average attainment; 3 honor points per credit hour.
C	Average attainment; 2 honor points per credit hour.
D	Lowest passing grade; 1 honor point per credit hour.
F	Failure; no honor point per credit hour.
P	Passing; this grade is assigned to students satisfying the requirements in courses taken by proficiency examinations and for courses in which such grade is required. This grade is not included in the computation of the grade point index.
NP	Not Passing; this grade is assigned to students who fail in the courses indicated under the grade P. This grade is not included in the computation of the grade point index.

Courses completed at the University and taken in other higher education institutions having previous authorization from the corresponding authorities at Inter American University will be included in the computation of the grade point index. The grade point index is determined by dividing the total number of honor quality points by the total number of credits completed with the grades of A, B, C, D, or F.

All courses that grant academic credit require tests or other grading tools. This includes a final examination or its equivalent. Faculty members will indicate on their class register how the final grade was determined.

Change of Grades Request

Students who believe that their final grade in a course is erroneous must notify the course instructor. This faculty member will be responsible for discussing the evaluations with the student and, if necessary, will submit a grade change.

If students are not satisfied with the attention given to their grade change request, they may resort to the procedure established in Article 2, Part A, number 8, of the General Student Regulations.

The deadline for requesting a change of grade will be the deadline for withdrawal with a grade of "W" of the academic term following the term of the same type in which the grade was given.

Administrative Action Symbols

The following symbols are used to indicate administrative action taken in regard to student status in courses for which they registered:

W	Course Withdrawal: Assigned when the student withdraws from a course after the end of the period for class changes and no later than the date established on the academic calendar for withdrawals with W.
DC	Course Withdrawal: Assigned when the student withdraws from a course before the end of the period for class changes. The symbol does not appear on the student transcript.
AD	Administrative Drop: Assigned when the University drops the student for reasons such as death, suspension or other situations warranting a drop.
AW	Assigned when the professor informs in the electronic register that the student never attended class.
I	Incomplete: When students have not completed a course requirement and present valid reasons for it, the professor may assign the symbol "I" (Incomplete). Together with the symbol "I", the professor will include a provisional grade after assigning zero for the unfinished work. When faculty members assign an "I", they shall report to their immediate supervisor the grade that the student has earned up to that time, the evaluation criteria and a description of the unfinished work (if applicable). A student who receives an "I" must remove it by the date specified on the Academic Calendar. The responsibility for removing the "Incomplete" rests on the student. If the "Incomplete" is not removed within the time specified, the student will receive the informed provisional grade. This policy will apply whether or not the student enrolls again at the University.
AU	Symbol used to indicate on student transcripts that the course was audited. No honor points or University credits are awarded.
R	Symbol used to indicate the course was repeated.
T	Symbol used to indicate the course was transferred from another institution.
UW	Assigned in the electronic register when a student stops attending a course, and does not qualify for a grade of "I" or "F".
MW	Symbol used to indicate total withdrawal for military reasons

Satisfactory Academic Progress Requirements

The University requires that all students demonstrate satisfactory academic progress at the end of each academic year by:

1. Achieving a minimum cumulative grade point index until completion of the degree as shown in Item A below;
2. Completing the academic degree within a reasonable time as reflected in Item B below: and
3. Passing the number of credits reflected in Item C below.

A. Grade Point Index Requirement

Bachelor's Degree		Associate Degree
Credits Completed	Minimum Index	Credits Completed	Minimum Index
47 or less	1.50	23 or less	1.50
48 – 71	1.75	24-47	1.75
72 – 95	1.90	48 or more	1.90
96 or more	2.00

Completed credits are taken to mean all those credits for which grades A, B, C, D, F, P, NP or T (credits accepted by this University as transfer credits from other institutions) have been received.

Any student who does not meet the requirement stated in Item A above will be placed on academic probation for two semesters or the equivalent. Students who, by the end of their probationary period, have not raised their academic index to the minimum required for the level of credits completed, have not made satisfactory academic progress and will be suspended from the University for academic deficiency for a period of one semester or its equivalent. However, students who, during the probationary period, pass a minimum of 75 percent of the credits attempted with an average academic index of at least 2.50 in all courses completed during that period, may continue their studies at the University on a probationary status. Once students graduate, their transcripts will not reflect probationary periods or suspensions to which they may have been subject.

B. Time Period Requirement

1. Requirements Established by the University

Students must complete the Bachelor's Degree within a maximum of ten (10) years of study. The Associate Degree must be completed within a maximum of four and one-half (4 1/2) years of study. Years of study are accumulated as shown in the following table:

Term	Student Classification	Years of Study by Percent
Semester	Full-time	50.0
	Part-time	25.0
Trimester	Full-time	33.3
	Part-time	16.7

Transfer credits also accrue time towards years of study. Such time is accumulated at the rate of one year of study for 24 transfer credits. Students who do not complete their degree within the designated maximum time have not made satisfactory academic progress.

If students exceed established time limits, the Dean of Studies or his representative, upon the recommendation of the appropriate department directors, will evaluate each case to determine the requirements necessary to complete the degree after analyzing the content of the courses.

Students on academic probation retain their eligibility for financial aid, except students who do not comply with the time period requirements established by the University.

2. Limited Eligibility to Receive Federal Funds

In addition to the time limits established by the University, the Government of the United States has established a limit to the period of eligibility to receive federal funds for studies. This limit depends on the duration of the study program selected by the student. For additional information on this topic, the section on "Federal Funds" in this Catalog may be consulted.

Students on academic probation retain their eligibility for financial aid, except students who do not comply with the time period requirements established by the University or Federal government.

C. Requirements for Credits Passed in Relation to Credits Attempted

Students must pass at least 75 percent of the credits attempted. Credits attempted are taken to mean those credits corresponding to courses in which the student has registered and obtained the grade or administrative action symbol of A, B, C, D, F, P, NP AD, I, W, UW, or T (credits transferred from other institutions).

Credits approved are taken to mean those credits corresponding to courses in which the student has received grades of A, B, C, D, P or T (credits transferred from other institutions.)

Students who do not meet the requirements for Item C will be placed on academic probation for two semesters or equivalent. During this period, students must correct their deficiency in credits accumulated in passed courses. Students, who, by the end of their probationary period, have not met these requirements have not made satisfactory academic progress and will be dropped for one semester or equivalent. Nevertheless, students who,

during the probationary period, pass a minimum of 75 percent of the credits attempted with an average index of at least 2.50 in the courses completed during that period may continue their studies at the University on a probationary status.

At the end of this suspension, students may be readmitted to the University with academic probationary status for two semesters or equivalent. However, students who have been dropped twice for academic reasons will be suspended from the University for five years.

This norm will be applied upon completion of the second regular semester of each academic year. Students will have ten workdays before the beginning of the course in either the first or second regular semester of the following academic year to appeal the decision. The appeal request should be in writing and should be sent to the Dean of Studies of the Campus. The Dean will convene the Appeals Committee so that it may consider the cases submitted to it.

Student transcripts will reflect the probationary or suspension periods to which students have been subjected due to the application of this norm. Once students have graduated, their transcripts will not reflect these periods.

In each Campus, an Appeals Committee will be appointed which will evaluate the requests for reconsideration made by students regarding the application of the Satisfactory Academic Progress Norm. This Committee will be composed of the Dean of Studies or a representative of this Dean, the Dean of Students or a representative, and a third member designated by the Chancellor. That committee will meet at least once each regular semester to consider the cases that it has received. Once these cases have been studied and analyzed, the committee will submit a report to the chancellor of the campus regarding the decision taken. This report will be submitted no later than five workdays after considering the cases under study. The chancellor will notify the student and the Appeals Committee of the action taken.

When probation is due only to noncompliance with the requirements for Item C, students may take the maximum number of credits allowed each term for regular students.

Dean's List

Announcement is made at the beginning of the academic year by the Dean of Studies of those students who have a cumulative grade point index of at least 3.25 and who have in the previous year achieved an academic index between 3.25 to 3.84.

1. When considering students to be included on the Dean's List, the academic year will be defined as the period from June to December of each calendar year and from January to May of the next calendar year.
2. To be on the Dean's List, students must have passed at least twenty-four (24) credits during the previous academic year.
3. The Registrar will submit the list to the Dean of Studies who will then notify the students who have attained this distinction.

The student transcript will reflect the academic years in which the student was on the Dean's List.

Chancellor's List

At the beginning of the academic year, the Chancellor will announce the names of students who have a cumulative grade point index of at least 3.85 and who have in the previous year achieved an academic index of at least 3.85.

1. When considering students to be included on the Chancellor's List, the academic year will be defined as the period from June to December of each calendar year and from January to May of the next calendar year.
2. To be on the Chancellor's List, students must have passed at least twenty-four (24) credits during the previous academic year.
3. The Registrar will submit the list to the Chancellor who will then notify the students who have attained this distinction.

The student transcript will reflect the academic years in which the student was on the Chancellor's List.

Academic Excellence in Majors Award

Recognition of academic excellence will be given to the student or the students with the highest grade point average in their major if they meet the following criteria:

1. Have a general academic index of 3.50 or more.
2. Have taken at least 30 percent of their major credits at Inter-American University with a grade point index of 3.50 or above.

Inter-institutional Educational Agreements

The University has a series of agreements with educational institutions in and outside of the United States. Students interested in learning about these agreements and in benefiting from them may request information from the Director of the Cyber Study Center or Dean of Studies of any Campus.

Exchange and International Cooperation Program

The University has approximately 90 agreements with universities and organizations of North, Central and South America, Europe and Asia. The Exchange and International Cooperation Programs add new dimensions to the relationship between institutions, professors, researchers and students of the participating countries. It provides the opportunity to participate in a diversity of learning experiences outside the University. The agreements established with other public and private universities, institutions, foundations and national and international organizations include strategic alliances of support and collaboration for mutual benefit. The consortia helps maintain a pertinent academic offering, as well as strengthen and diversify the services and processes related to learning. They also facilitate cultural enrichment and the improvement of the quality of life in the university community.

The cooperative alliances have facilitated the exchange of teaching staff, students, researchers, printed material, bibliographic collections and cultural activities. Scholarships for the University teaching staff and students have been obtained, as well as donations for technological equipment and advice regarding the establishment of programs, councils and institutes. Internship programs have been established for students and faculty with agencies of the federal government, the Puerto Rican Legislature, the Congress of the United States of America and service industries.

Students interested in learning about these agreements and benefiting from them may request information from the Executive Director of the Cyber Study Center.

Internship Programs

Some degree programs may require completion of a supervised internship. Students interested in taking an internship must contact the Executive Director of the Cyber Study Center at least 10 months before registering. The University will make every effort to provide Internship placement to the student in whatever program Internship is required. To receive credit, student must comply with the employer's reasonable requirements, as well as degree program requirements. The location of supervised internships must be within 90 miles of the Cyber Study Center. THE UNIVERSITY DOES NOT GUARANTEE INTERNSHIP PLACEMENT WITH AN EMPLOYEER THAT ALLOWS STUDENTS TO COMPLETE REQUIREMENTS IN SPANISH.

Course Codification System

The course codification system (AAAA-9999) consists of a four letter alphabetical section that identifies the discipline, and a four digit numerical that identifies the course level, the course itself and the course sequence if such exists.

The first digit (9999) indicates the level of complexity of the course. This is closely associated with the year of university studies in which students would normally take the course. The numbers from 0 to 4 are used to identify the course level as follows on the first digit:

- 0 - Preuniversity Certificate Program courses (sub 1000 level course)
- 1 - First level undergraduate courses (1000 level course)
- 2 - Second level undergraduate courses (2000 level course)
- 3 - Third level undergraduate courses (3000 level course)
- 4 - Fourth level undergraduate courses (4000 level course)

The numerical second and third digits (9999) are used to identify courses within the same level.

The numerical fourth digit (9999) indicates the course sequence of two courses within the same level. Sequence is indicated by the number 1 and 2 on the fourth digit. This sequence is different on Special Topics courses where the fourth digit (9999) on the course code is between 1 and 9, depending on the amount of sections programmed during the academic term. The number 1 is used for the first programmed section, number 2 for the second section and so on.

In addition to the meaning ascribed to individual digits, combinations of the first three digits indicate a special type of course as explained below:

1. The use of zero (0) as the first digit indicates a Pre-university Certificate Program course.

2. The following combinations in the first three digits indicate a special type of course as explained below:

a) Associate Degrees

1. The combination 197_ is used to identify Special Topics in all disciplines.
2. The combination 291_ is used to identify supervised practicums or internships.
3. The combination 297_ is used to identify seminars whose titles are not specified in the Catalog.

b) Bachelors' Degrees

1. The combination 397_ is used to identify Special Topics in all disciplines.
2. The combination 491_ is used to identify supervised practicums or internships.
3. The combination 497_ is used to identify seminars whose titles are not specified in the Catalog.

Validation of Learning Experiences

The University offers students the opportunity to demonstrate mastery of content in many of the courses included in the General Catalog through proficiency examinations. This opportunity will be given, as long as the means and the proper scales exist for verifying the expected performance level and the department concerned has the necessary resources available. Students demonstrating mastery in accordance with the stipulations of this section will be granted the corresponding academic credits without attending classes. Regular students may approve up to 15 credits through this modality.

Written Tests for Validation of Learning Experiences

Students may take written tests to validate their mastery of the content of select courses. Tests in Spanish may be prepared by the Spanish faculty of the University. The tests in English and mathematics may be prepared and administered by CLEP, the Advanced Placement tests of the College Board or the English and mathematics faculty of the University. Passing scores on the CLEP will be those recommended by the American Council on Education for examinations given in English.

Freshman students who have obtained scores above 600 on the College Board Aptitude Test in Mathematics or in the English Achievement Test may take proficiency examinations in the basic courses of those disciplines in which such courses are obtained at least fifteen (15) workdays before the beginning of classes. Each campus will make the necessary arrangements, so that students will be able to take one or more examinations within the specified time.

Proficiency Examinations

Some of the courses in the General Catalog are not suitable for testing by written examinations, as in the case of skills courses that require some type of manual performance or experimentation. In these cases, other means may be provided to measure their skills.

Examples of measurements are typing exercises and supervised activities in art, music, education courses, and laboratory procedures.

The rules governing proficiency examinations are the following:

1. Students should consult the proficiency examination schedule in the respective academic departments for the dates of the examinations.
2. Students desiring to take proficiency examinations must make a request to do so of the Executive Director of the Orlando Cyber Study Center at least three weeks prior to the date officially announced for the examinations.
3. Students shall have access to course syllabi and shall be informed as to the type of examination for which they should prepare.
4. Students shall pay 50 percent of the regular per credit cost for the written and performance tests. This payment must be made at least 10 workdays before the date of the examination. Payment for College Board examinations shall be according to the fees established by the College Board.
5. Students shall present and deliver to the examination proctor a written authorization from the Department Chairperson. This proctor will notify the student and Office of the Registrar of the test results. The Office of the Registrar will enter the course and a corresponding grade of "P" or "NP" on the student's transcript.
6. University-level credit earned through proficiency examinations will appear on the students' academic transcript with the grade of "P". The minimum grade for which credit will be given is that indicated by the letter grade of "C" or its equivalent. In those cases where equivalencies have not been determined by prior norms or standards, the Vice President for Academic and Student Affairs and Systemic Planning will determine them.
7. Students shall not be permitted to take proficiency examinations for courses in which they are enrolled.
8. Students who have discontinued their studies for a period equal to or greater than one semester must request readmission before the beginning of the academic term in which they expect to take the examination.

Portfolio

The portfolio is a document compiled by the student, which contains information and evidence showing the student's experiences and achievements. In this document, the student's learning experiences and achievements, except those acquired in high school, are identified, organized, developed and carefully evidenced. Students must meet the following requirements: (1) be registered or be an active student of the University, (2) have declared a major and be admitted to a program of studies, and (3) meet the academic progress norms, unless they are newly admitted students. Students studying in a Baccalaureate program may obtain a maximum of 24 credits by portfolio, and those in Associate Degree programs a maximum of 12 credits. A maximum of three university courses may be validated by portfolio. The portfolio should be prepared in harmony with the "Institutional Guide: The Validation of Learning Experiences by Means of the Portfolio."

The academic standards governing portfolio are:

- a) Academic credit is granted only for knowledge acquired and not for experiences.
- b) University credit is granted only for University-level knowledge.
- c) The learning must have the proper balance between the required theory and practical application.
- d) The decision regarding the level of competence and the corresponding credits is made by professors who master the subject matter.
- e) The credits granted and accepted must correspond proportionately to the academic context for which they are awarded.

The process for presenting a portfolio is the following:

1. Interested students must make a request to the Director of the Department asking that their learning experiences be granted academic credits through a portfolio.
2. The Director of the Department will name three faculty members to constitute the Evaluation Committee.
3. The student will meet with the Evaluation Committee to receive orientation regarding the process and the criteria to be utilized to evaluate the student's learning. Once it is determined for which course or courses the portfolio will be presented, the Committee will decide if the student qualifies or not for this modality.
4. If students qualify for a portfolio, they shall pay 50 percent of the regular course tuition cost for the evaluation. After evidence of payment has been presented to the Director of the Department, this person will assign an expert faculty member to evaluate the portfolio.
5. The student will prepare and organize the portfolio in coordination with the expert faculty member, who will determine which documents should be presented and the techniques that should be used to evidence that the student possesses the required knowledge.
6. The faculty member shall determine the date on which the student should turn in the portfolio. The portfolio will be evaluated during the same academic term in which it was handed in to the faculty member.
7. During the evaluation process, the faculty member will make recommendations to the student, if necessary.
8. The faculty member will submit the results of the evaluation to the Director of the Department. If necessary, the faculty member will consult with the Evaluation Committee during this process.
9. When the evaluation of the portfolio is favorable, the Director of the Department will endorse the validation and will submit it to the Office of the Registrar for the corresponding official action.
10. The student will receive the grade of "P" (passed) or "NP" (not passed).
11. When the evaluation of the portfolio is unfavorable, the faculty member will inform the student of the reason for this decision.

Grievance Policy

A grievance procedure is available to any student who believes a College decision or action has adversely affected his/her status, rights or privileges as a student. The purpose is to provide a prompt and equitable process for resolving student grievances. Students with grievances should first meet with the Coordinator of Student Services and complete a written statement. If the grievance is not resolved, then the Executive Director will review it with all parties concerned. The General Student Regulation Handbook will serve as the guideline for the Executive Director during the process. The Executive Director's decision is final.

Student Services and Activities

Student Financial Aid

The University awards financial aid, within the limitations of available funds, to students who meet the specific requirements established by those offering the aid. Applicant eligibility for such aid is reviewed each academic year.

The Free Application for Federal Student Aid may be completed via Internet and Application forms may also be obtained from high school principals or counselors or from the Orlando Cyber Study Center.

The University will use the results from the Free Application for Federal Student Aid to award additional federal funds to eligible students.

Military service personnel and other qualified individuals may use their Veterans' benefits under the applicable legislation. Information on these programs may be obtained from the Registrars' Offices in the campuses.

Persons interested in detailed information concerning the eligibility requirements and the evaluation procedures used for applications should refer to the Student Financial Aid Manual and/or contact the Financial Aid Office.

Financial Aid funds originate from different sources such as the United States Government (Federal Funds), University and private entities.

Students who opt for a second major and/or a minor not within their academic program may not use Title IV financial aid to pay the related costs.

THE UNIVERSITY IS NOT CURRENTLY QUALIFIED TO PARTICIPATE IN FLORIDA SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN PROGRAMS OTHER THAN THE FLORIDA PREPAID PROGRAM.

FINANCIAL AID IS AVAILABLE ONLY FOR THOSE STUDENTS WHO QUALIFY.

Federal Funds

Maximum Time Requirements for Federal Financial Aid

The period of time for which students are eligible to receive financial aid from federal sources depends on the duration of the program of studies as defined by the University. For this purpose, the University has determined the duration of its programs according to the number of credits they require. Students must complete their program of studies within a time period that does not exceed 150% of its duration. The courses considered in this percentage are those required by the selected program. Students accumulate time for transferred credits.

Study Benefit Time Limits for Veterans and Beneficiaries

The beneficiaries of educational services for veterans, including eligible family relatives, have the right to enjoy these benefits only for the period of time required for completing their academic degree as established in this Catalog and by applicable legislation and regulations.

Study time required for completing an academic program depends on the number of credits required for the program, the nature of the courses and the number of credits the student takes each term. An estimate of the period of time required may be obtained by dividing the total number of credits required for the program by 15, which is the average number of credits taken by a full-time regular student.

Students accumulate semesters of study as indicated below:

Term	Student Classification	Terms of Study (in percent)
Semester	Full-time	100.0
	Part-time	50.0
Trimester	Full-time	66.7
	Part-time	33.3
Bimester	Full-time	50.0
	Part-time	25.0

Students also accumulate study time at the rate of one (1) semester for every twelve (12) transferred credits.

Federal Pell Grant

This Program was instituted by the United States Government as the basis for student financial aid programs. Interested persons apply by submitting the Federal Student Aid application form that is distributed by the Financial Aid Office, post offices and high schools or by completing the application via Internet at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Several ways to submit the application follow:

1. The new student completes the application via Internet or submits it to the Financial Aid Office of The University where it will be processed, electronically, to the United States Central Processing Center. The University will receive information concerning the eligibility of the applicant listed on the Student Aid Report (ISIR) and will communicate this to the applicant. The advantage of this method is that it speeds up the process, avoids errors and the applicant does not have to wait to receive the response by mail. Normally, The University receives the response within 72 working hours from the time the application was transmitted. This method speeds up the process because:

- a. The Free Application for Financial Student Aid (FAFSA) is available on the Internet and may be completed from anywhere at any time.
 - b. Information does not need to go through the mail.
 - c. If the application is not approved or if information was assumed in the approval process, the Financial Aid Director can help and can get in touch with the student. The Financial Aid Office corrects the error electronically.
 - d. If the application is approved, the financial aid offer letter will be prepared when the student selects courses for registration,
 - e. The payment process during enrollment is simplified. It can even be done by mail.
2. Applicants who received Federal Aid at The University the previous year need only to update their application for renewal via Internet by using a personal identification number "PIN number" mailed by the U.S. Department of Education. Students not receiving the "PIN number" may request it at www.pin.ed.gov. This form will be electronically processed.
 3. Indicate on the application the campus of The University where the student intends to study, authorize said campus to receive the information regarding the applicant's eligibility, and send the application by mail. This method is not as fast as the one described in Item #1, because the application is sent by mail to an intermediary agency, where the data is entered and transmitted to the Central Processing Center. Furthermore, the information is not reviewed by a financial aid official to avoid errors. The response is electronically transmitted to Inter American University.
 4. Send the application by mail without authorizing The University to receive the information electronically. This is the slowest method of processing the application, because the University cannot process the application for the grant until the applicant receives it by mail and submits the answer to the Financial Aid Office.

The Financial Aid Officer will determine the amount of aid to be awarded by using the federally approved formula, which takes into account the cost of education, the academic load and the Expected Family Contribution.

Eligibility for the Federal Pell Grant expires when the student completes the academic requirements for a Bachelor's Degree for the first time. Upon completion of the second year of study, students must maintain a minimum grade point index of 1.50 in order to receive federal financial aid.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG)

The University distributes this grant to students who have not completed any Bachelor's Degree. Awards go first to students with exceptional need. Priority is given to Pell Grant recipients.

Perkins Federal Student Loan Program

This is a low interest loan available to undergraduate and graduate students whose studies lead to a degree. Students must demonstrate their intention to pay. They are required to sign a promissory note and other documents. Participants will begin payment on principal and interest six (6) months after the last term in which they studied with an academic loan of at least six (6) credits.

Students participating in the Program for the first time on or before July 1, 1987 will begin payments nine (9) months after the last term in which they studied with an academic load of at least six (6) credits. Students may apply for deferral and cancellation of installments. The annual interest rate after October 1, 1981 is 5%. These funds are assigned preferably to students with exceptional needs.

These funds are matched with University funds.

Federal Stafford Loans

This Program offers both subsidized and unsubsidized loans. Subsidized loans are awarded on the basis of financial need and the federal government pays interest on the loan until the borrower begins to pay and during periods of authorized deferment. Unsubsidized loans are not awarded on the basis of need and interest is charged from the time the loan is disbursed until it is paid in full. Unsubsidized loans may not exceed the family contribution or the cost of education, whichever is less, within the limits established by the Program.

For both subsidized and unsubsidized loans, students should apply directly to the University. After the full Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is reviewed the University will inform students of their loan eligibility. Students must be enrolled in an academic load of at least six credits.

Dependent undergraduate students can borrow up to:

- * $3,500.00 if they are first-year students enrolled in a program of study that is at least a full academic year;
- * $4,500.00 if they have completed their first year of study and the remainder of their program is at least a full academic year;
- * $5,500.00 a year if they have completed two years of study, and the remainder of their program is at least a full academic year.

Students may choose the lender they understand offers the best benefits.

Federal Work Study Program

The funds provided by the Federal Government to this Program are augmented by funds contributed by The University, unless the University is exempt from this requirement. Participants are assigned employment for which they receive compensation, which contributes toward payment of their educational expenses. When possible, students are assigned work related to their field of study.

Student Development Scholarship

This is an economic incentive established and administered by the Vice-President for Academic and Student Affairs and Systemic Planning to promote at the institutional level student interest in continuous learning and participation in challenging and innovative academic experiences that enrich and strengthen their formation.

University students and graduates may apply annually for this scholarship to participate in professional development projects such as graduate studies, internships, research projects, cooperative education, international exchange projects, study trips, cultural activities and other professional student development activities. The amount of the scholarship depends on the scope of the project and on the funds available to the Vice-President for Academic and Student Affairs and Systemic Planning.

Veterans Services

The University offers recruiting, guidance and referral services to Veterans of the Armed Forces who wish to study at the University. The Guidance and Counseling Office at each campus assists veterans in the solution of their individual problems and serves as liaison with other offices as needed. Students may contact the Executive Director for the Cyber Study Center about this or the Guidance and Counseling Office directly.

Other Student Services

The Cyber Study Center and Campuses have designated staff to assist students with academic advisement, personal advisement and placement services without additional charge. THE UNIVERSITY MAKES NO GUARANTEE OF EMPLOYMENT, but makes every effort to assist students (e.g., through resume preparation, job interview training, online job search training, contacting prospective employers about job openings, providing official transcripts, etc.).

Graduation Requirements and Information

Students will graduate under the program and regulations stated in the University catalog under which they were admitted or in any single subsequent catalog, but no combination thereof. Readmitted students will graduate under the program and regulations of the catalog in effect at the time of their readmission or under any subsequent catalog. In the event that a required course of the selected catalog is no longer offered by the University, substitutions may be made with the approval of the Department Chairperson. Courses required in more than one program may be credited as such in each program. Courses taken after graduation will not alter the graduation grade point index.

Graduates must meet the current laws and regulations of their profession.

Graduation Requirements for Bachelors' Degrees

In order to fulfill the basic requirements of a Bachelor's Degree from Inter American University, a student must:

1. Complete satisfactorily a minimum of 120 academic credits.
2. Complete a major consisting of the number of credit hours specified in the curriculum of the student's major department. See the section "Undergraduate (Associate and Bachelor) Degree Program and Course Descriptions."
3. Achieve an overall, minimum grade point index of 2.00, except in those programs that require a higher index. Remedial courses will not be counted toward the required academic index.
4. Achieve an overall grade point index of 2.00 or higher in the major field of study.

5. Complete satisfactorily at least 24 credits of those required for the degree at the University.
6. Complete satisfactorily at least 15 credits of the major at the University. (General Education courses and elective courses are not included.)
7. Complete the General Education requirements for a Bachelor's Degree as established in the student's major.

Application for Graduation

Candidates for an Associate or Bachelor's Degree who have completed three-fourths of the required credits should apply for graduation no later than one academic term before the term in which they expect to graduate. Students must graduate from a campus authorized to offer the major and degree to be conferred. If the students are not studying at such a campus at the moment of applying for graduation, they must apply at a campus in which they took residency courses. Applications may be obtained at the Office of the Registrar and should be returned to that Office after they have been filled out and stamped by the Business Office, showing that the non-refundable fee of $80 has been paid for the Doctor, Master, Bachelor and Associate Degrees. Failure to comply with this procedure may result in the postponement of the granting of the degree.

Any alleged error in the evaluation of the application for graduation should be reported to the appropriate Registrar within a week after the receipt of the evaluation.

The payment of graduation fees of any kind, the listing of the student as a candidate for graduation in any document and/or invitation either to the graduation ceremonies or to any other activity related to graduation exercises shall not be interpreted as an offer to graduate nor a covenant to that effect. Only the completion of all requirements listed in this catalog or in any other official University directive entitles a student to graduation irrespective of any representation of any kind made by any official of this University.

Candidacy for graduation will be attained by the student after the faculty has determined that the requirements for graduation have been fulfilled. Subsequently, the faculty will present the degree candidates to the President of the University and to the Board of Trustees.

Students who have completed the graduate requirements and paid the graduation fee, but interrupt their studies, may request to have their payment considered effective for four regular semesters or two academic years from the date of the last term in which they studied.

Graduation with Honors

The distinctions of Cum Laude, Magna Cum Laude, and Summa Cum Laude are awarded to students who have achieved academic excellence in the Associate and Bachelor Degrees. To be eligible for these honors, the student must have earned an overall average of:

- 3.25 for Cum Laude (with honors)
- 3.50 for Magna Cum Laude (with high honors)
- 3.85 for Summa Cum Laude (with the highest honors)

These distinctions are awarded only to students who have completed satisfactorily at least 30 percent of the credits required for the degree at this University. This same grade point index will be used in granting all other academic honors.

General Education Program

Goals and Orientation of the General Education Curriculum

The University curriculum is composed of three interrelated components: general education, specialization and electives, which address the formation of the student in terms of a comprehensive education.

The University offers a General Education Program that, independent of the area of specialization that the student selects, contributes to the achievement of the following goals:

- Goal I To develop an educated person through the cultivation of skills, knowledge, values and attitudes that strengthen the student's intellectual and moral formation.
- Goal II To develop a person interested in improving the personal, family, environmental, economic and political life of the United States and the rest of the world.
- Goal III To develop a person capable of communicating with propriety in Spanish or English and of using the other language at an acceptable level.
- Goal IV To develop a person capable of quantitative reasoning and the application of mathematical knowledge to diverse situations.
- Goal V To develop a person with the basic knowledge of the use and function of the computer as a means of self-learning and for access to information.
- Goal VI To develop a person with a critical, analytical and constructive mind, capable of reflecting on human being's vital problems.
- Goal VII To develop a person with an ethical conscience, capable of evaluating and making responsible decisions for his life and that of others.
- Goal VIII To develop a person with an aesthetic sensitivity who appreciates artistic values and contributions.
- Goal IX To develop a person who understands and values the Christian faith from the standpoint of ecumenical openness and awareness of the faith's implications for culture.
- Goal X To develop a person who knows and understands the problems of humanity in its social and historical context.
- Goal XI To develop a person who can comprehend the phenomena of nature and methods to study nature, as well as appreciate the contributions of science to the betterment of mankind.
- Goal XII To develop a person who appreciates and maintains his physical, emotional, spiritual and social health in a way which promotes the individual and collective well being and quality of life.

General Education Categories and Course Descriptions

The General Education Program emphasizes the development of a personal and social conscience; the refinement of communication skills; quantitative and philosophical thought; the use of technology as a means of access to information, the cultivation of ethical and aesthetic sensitivity; and knowledge of principles of Christian faith and practice.

The General Education Program requires the satisfactory completion of 48 credits for the Bachelor's Degree. It allows students to take courses in sequence, according to years of study. This is accomplished through the codification of each course, where the first number of the course usually responds to the year of study. It is recommended that the student take courses following the established sequence.

Categories of the General Education Program

The General Education Program of the Inter American University of Puerto Rico comprises the following seven categories.

Basic Skills: This category develops competencies in the following areas: Spanish and English communication skills, mathematics, and information and computer technologies.

Christian Thought: This category develops the competencies that allow the understanding and appreciation of Christian faith from an ecumenical openness.

Entrepreneurial Culture: This category develops the competencies for the formation of a person with an entrepreneurial attitude and capability for self-management and entrepreneurship in the context of a globalized society.

Philosophical and Aesthetic Thought: This category develops competencies related to ethics, social responsibility, and musical, artistic, and theatrical appreciation.

Historical and Social Context: This category develops the fundamental competencies of history and social sciences to allow the understanding of society in a local and global context.

Scientific and Technological Context: This category develops the fundamental competencies for the study and understanding of the interrelation between the natural sciences, the environment, technology and the human being. It also encourages the development of a responsible ecological attitude.

Health and Quality of Life: This category develops competencies that contribute to integral health, quality of life, and healthy individual and collective lifestyles.

Basic Skills

Basic Skills - 23 credits

Basic Skills: These courses enable a Spanish or English-speaking person to learn, respectively, English or Spanish as a second language, the skills of mathematical analysis and methods of quantitative and qualitative research, and how to use emerging technology in another language. These courses strengthen the skills necessary for a person's personal and professional life.

Basic Skills: Spanish

Three (3) courses in Spanish in the established sequence are required for a total of nine (9) credits. The courses GESP 1101, 1102, and 2203 will be supported by an open laboratory (virtual). For students whose native language is not Spanish, GESP 1021, GESP 1022, and GESP 2023 are the required courses.

Elementary Level (English Speaking Students)

GESP 1021 BASIC SKILLS IN SPANISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

Intensive development of linguistic skills (understanding, speaking, reading and writing). Study of the lexical and morphosyntactical aspects of Spanish that will prepare students with no prior knowledge of Spanish to perform satisfactorily in that language. Required course.

3 credits

GESP 1022 INTERMEDIATE SPANISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

A more in-depth study of the lexical, morphological and syntactical aspects of the Spanish language in diverse contexts. Introduction to the reading of texts of intermediate complexity. Writing based on simple and intermediate complex structures. Required course. Prerequisite: GESP 1021.

3 credits

GESP 2023 WRITING AND COMPOSITION FOR NON-NATIVE SPANISH SPEAKERS

Study of the oral and written language of Spanish through readings that develop the student's critical and creative capabilities and writing and composition of different types of prose, including descriptive, narrative and expository prose. Required course. Prerequisite: GESP 1022.

3 credits

Intermediate Level (Spanish Speaking Students)

GESP 1101 LITERATURE AND COMMUNICATION: NARRATIVE AND ESSAY

Reading and discussion of narrative and essay works of the Spanish, Hispanic-American and Puerto Rican literature for the development of analytical and oral and written communication skills. Systematic practice of the different types of paragraphs and grammatical structures. Required course.

3 credits

GESP 1102 LITERATURE AND COMMUNICATION: POETRY AND THEATER

Reading and discussion of poetic and theatric works of the Spanish, Hispanic-American and Puerto Rican literatures for the development of analytical and oral and written communication skills. Systematic practice of the different types of grammatical structures and the different types of elocution with emphasis on exposition and argumentation. Prerequisite: GESP 1101. Required course.

3 credits

GESP 2203 WORLD VIEW THROUGH LITERATURE

Study of literature as an artistic expression and as a means for expressing reality with emphasis on refining oral and written communication skills. Includes a selection of universal literary works representative of different themes and epochs. Requires additional time in an open lab. Required course. Prerequisite: GESP 2023.

3 credits

Basic Skills: English

Three (3) courses in English in the established sequence and level are required for a total of nine (9) credits. This curriculum is divided into three levels: elementary, intermediate and advanced. Students will be placed in English courses based on their score on the English examination of the College Board (or its equivalent). This placement will be made according to the following scores: elementary level, a score up to 450; intermediate level, scores from 451 to 549; and advanced level, scores of 550 or above. Special cases, such as transfer students from universities or other higher education systems not requiring the College Board examination, as well as readmitted students who have not taken the basic skills in English requirements, will be required to have an interview with the Director of the English Department or the person designated, for their placement in the corresponding level. The elementary level courses (GEEN 1101, GEEN 1102 and GEEN 1103) and those of the intermediate level (GEEN 1201, GEEN 1202 and GEEN 1203) require additional time in an open laboratory (virtual). The advanced level courses include GEEN 2311, GEEN 2312, and GEEN 2313.

Elementary LevelGEEN 1101 ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE I

Development of English as a second language. Emphasis on auditory comprehension, oral production and vocabulary acquisition in context. Requires additional time in a laboratory. Required course.

3 credits

GEEN 1102 ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE II

Development of English as a second language. Practice in listening, speaking and reading skills. Emphasis on reading skills and vocabulary acquisition in context. Introduction to paragraph writing. Requires additional time in a laboratory. Prerequisite: GEEN 1101. Required course.

3 credits

GEEN 1103 ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE III

Development of English as a second language. Practice in listening, speaking and reading skills. Emphasis on writing process skills, using different formats and vocabulary acquisition in context. Requires additional time in a laboratory. Prerequisite: GEEN 1102. Required course.

3 credits

Intermediate Level

GEEN 1201 DEVELOPMENT OF ENGLISH THROUGH READING I

Development of reading skills. Refinement of English through oral presentations, paragraph writing, and vocabulary acquisition in context. Requires additional time in a laboratory. Required course.

3 credits

GEEN 1202 DEVELOPMENT OF ENGLISH THROUGH READING II

Development of reading skills, with emphasis on critical reading. Refinement of the reading process and vocabulary acquisition in context. Requires additional time in a laboratory. Prerequisite: GEEN 1201. Required course.

3 credits

GEEN 1203 DEVELOPMENT OF ENGLISH THROUGH WRITING

Introduction to essay writing including organization process, revision and editing. Emphasis on the organization, essay paragraph development, refinement of grammar and vocabulary acquisition in context. Requires additional time in a laboratory. Prerequisite: GEEN 1202. Required course.

3 credits

Advanced Level

GEEN 2311 READING AND WRITING

Reading and analysis oriented toward essay writing. Emphasis on organization skills, revision in the writing process and vocabulary acquisition in context. Required course.

3 credits

GEEN 2312 LITERATURE AND WRITING

Analysis and discussion of literary works. Essay writing on topics related to the readings. Emphasis on vocabulary acquisition in context. Prerequisite: GEEN 2311. Required course.

3 credits

GEEN 2313 WRITING AND RESEARCH

Planning, research and writing of academic works. Emphasis on skills for searching, comprehension, evaluation, and effective use of information and vocabulary acquisition in context. Required course.

3 credits

Basic Skills: Mathematics

Three credits in mathematics are required. These courses will be supported by an open laboratory (virtual). There are two alternatives: GEMA 1000 or GEMA 1200. Students in the Education program will take GEMA 1001 and GEMA 1002.

GEMA 1000 QUANTITATIVE REASONING

The content of this course is developed through problem solving and the integration of available technology as a work tool. Study of sets of real numbers, measuring systems, geometry (length, area and volume), operations with polynomials, equation solving for linear variables that include ratios, proportions, mathematical financial formulas and literal equations. Basic concepts of statistics: frequency distribution and measures of central tendency dispersion. Principles of probability and methods of counting. Requires additional time in an open lab.

3 credits

GEMA 1200 FUNDAMENTALS OF ALGEBRA

Application of algebra to problem solving, including graphic and symbolic representations. Study of algebraic expressions with whole and rational exponents. Simplification and factorization of algebraic expressions. Binomial expansion. Real and logarithmic exponents. Equations with rational expressions, radicals, exponents or logarithms. Linear and quadratic inequalities. Linear equations in two variables and its graph. Requires additional time in an open lab.

3 credits

GEMA 1001 MATHEMATICS FOR TEACHERS I

Study and application of the fundamental topics of the Theory of Sets, Numeration and Operation and Data Analysis and Probability. Emphasis on the development of content through problem solving. Includes communication in mathematics, mathematical reasoning, representation, the integration of mathematics with other contents, the integration of the cross-sectional topics of the curriculum and the integration of available technology as a work tool. This course is designed for elementary school teachers. A minimum grade of C is required to pass this course. Requires additional time of open laboratory.

3 credits

GEMA 1002 MATHEMATICS FOR TEACHERS II

Study and application of the fundamental topics of Measurement, Geometry and Algebra. Emphasis on the development of content through problem solving. Includes communication in mathematics, mathematical reasoning, representation, the integration of mathematics with other contents, the integration of the cross-sectional topics of the curriculum and the integration of available technology as a work tool. This course is designed for elementary school teachers. A minimum grade of C is required to pass this course. Requires additional time of open laboratory. Prerequisite: GEMA 1001.

3 credits

Basic Skills: Access to Information and Computers

Three credits are required in this category. This course (GEIC 1010) will be supported by an open laboratory (virtual).

GEIC 1010 INFORMATION AND COMPUTER LITERACY

Development of skills in the use of the computer and in search for and the processing of information. Includes general concepts of computer systems and systems for organizing information. Recovery, evaluation, synthesis and presentation of information. Management of software such as operating systems, word processors, presentations, calculation sheets, navigators and information databases. Requires 45 hours of lecture-lab. Requires additional time in an open laboratory. Required course.

3 credits

Entrepreneurial Context

Students will take 3 credits in this category.

GEEC 2000 ENTREPRENEURIAL CULTURE

Discussion of aspects that foster the development of attitudes and mentality aimed at taking initiatives, identifying opportunities, and addressing challenges of personal, social, and economic settings to promote an entrepreneurial culture. Core course.

3 credits

Philosophic and Aesthetic Thought

Philosophical and Aesthetic Thought: The competencies and skills of logical thought, argumentation and rhetoric skills applying to all knowledge (critical, imaginative, contextual, synthetic, and evaluative, among others) and which constitute the principal intellectual repository for learning to learn. The development of fundamental knowledge that propitiates the refinement of musical artistic sensitivity.

Six credits are required in this category. Course GEPE 4040 is required.

GEPE 2020 HUMANISTIC STUDIES

Philosophic reflection on language, esthetics, religion, history, society, science and technology. Logical and critical approach to everyday life affairs of the present day world. From the perspective of philosophy, the course adds an integrating method of knowledge to general education. Prescribed distributive course.

3 credits

GEPE 3010 ART APPRECIATION

Study of the fundamentals of visual arts and how these form an integral part of life. Study of the historical and aesthetical background in which works of art are produced. Prescribed distributive course.

3 credits

GEPE 3020 MUSIC APPRECIATION

Study of the value of music in our society. Stimulate the enjoyment of universal music from a multicultural approach, using methods that develop auditory perception. Emphasis on the elements of music and on basic musical forms. Prescribed distributive course.

3 credits

GEPE 3030 THEATRE APPRECIATION

Study of the fundamentals of the performing arts and their incorporation to life in society. Integration of the elements for the analysis of the performing arts, allowing for the development of a critical and evaluative exercise of these. Theoretical revision of theatrical production milestones from its origins to the present, both in dramaturgy as in staging. Prescribed distributive course.

3 credits

GEPE 4040 ETHICAL DIMENSIONS OF CONTEMPORARY MATTERS

Elective Credits – 3 credits

An elective course is (i) any course a student takes in any General Education, Major or Prescribed Distributive Course within the student’s degree program, in addition to the courses that the student has taken to satisfy the minimum degree program requirements in each category and/or (ii) any course in another degree program. Provided that the student must meet course prerequisites and cannot count the same course twice.

Computer Science Bachelor's Program

The Bachelor of Science Degree in Computer Science offers a theoretical and practical preparation to develop current concepts in the technical and diversified areas of the computer field. The Program fosters the development of skills such as: logical reasoning, developing well-documented structured programs in various programming languages that work efficiently in a reasonable period of time, recognizing which types of problems are susceptible to solution by computer and using the necessary tools to solve problems and measure the implications of the student's work as an individual, as well as a team member. The Program also includes detailed knowledge of the organization, architecture, operation and limitations of computerized systems and a background that allows students to continue studying and developing themselves in the field of computer sciences.

Practice or internship experience may be credited to students who have had a satisfactory work experience and request such credit in writing to the director of the academic department. This credit will be subject to whether:

1. The student has been working for a minimum period of two years in a company within the five-year period immediately prior to the date of the request.
2. The student presents a certification and letter from the employer or the Human Resources Office of the company that specifies:
 - a. Years of experience
 - b. Period of time employed
 - c. Position (s) occupied
 - d. Description of tasks
 - e. Any other evidence of professional performance during the time of employment.
3. The student pays 50% of the cost of registration for the practice or internship course for which credit is requested.

This program is authorized to be offered online.

Course Descriptions, Faculty and Learning Resources (Computer Science)

MATH 1500 PRECALCULUS

Study of functions, with emphasis on linear, polynomial, rational, exponential, logarithmic and trigonometric functions. Operations with functions and inverse functions. Study of analytical trigonometry of complex numbers; linear and nonlinear equation systems, inequalities, matrices, determinants and polar coordinates. Prerequisite: GEMA 1200

5 credits

GONZALEZ, ROSA E., Associate Professor. B.A., M.A. in Education in Mathematics, University of Puerto Rico.

Lial, M., Hornsby, J., & Schneider, D. (2016). Precalculus. (6th ed.). Boston: Pearson.

MATH 2251 CALCULUS I

Limits of a function, the derivative, Rolle's theorem and the mean value theorem, application of the derivative. The definite integral and the fundamental theorem of calculus. Derivatives and integrals of trigonometric, exponential and logarithmic functions. Applications of the definite integral. Topics of analytical geometry: the circle, parabola, ellipse, and hyperbola. Prerequisite: MATH 1500.

5 credits

CALDERON, HELMUTH, Assistant Professor. B.A. in Mathematics, Chile University; M.S. in Mathematics, Chile University.

NAVARRO, JOSE, Assistant Professor. B.S. in Computer Science Engineering; M.S. in Computer Engineering; M.S. in Electrical Engineering.

Stewart, J. (2015). Calculus. (8th ed.). Cengage.

MATH 2100 INTRODUCTION TO PROBABILITY AND STATISTICS

Experimental and theoretical probability. Emphasis on the relationship between empirical reality and mathematical proof. Elements of probability, probability distributions and elementary theorems of conditional probability. Independent and mutually exclusive events. Measures of central tendency and measures of dispersion. Sampling, frequency distributions, normal distribution, percentiles, scoring and graphs. Confidence intervals. Hypothesis testing, correlation and regression. Use of the graphic calculator and computer software. Prerequisite: MATH 1500.

3 credits

CALDERON, HELMUTH, Assistant Professor. B.A. in Mathematics, Chile University; M.S. in Mathematics, Chile University.

Johnson, R., & Kuby, P. (2011). Elementary Statistics. (11th ed.). Duxbury Press.

PHYS 3001 GENERAL PHYSICS I

Logical and unified presentation of physics at the introductory level, emphasizing the basic ideas constituting its foundations: laws of motion and the conservation and interaction between particles and fields. Students are exposed to different experiences in the fields of mechanics and heat in the teaching-learning process. Emphasis on the integration and application of concepts throughout the experimentation. Requires 45 hours of lecture and 45 hours of lab. Prerequisite: MATH 1500.

4 credits

SANTIAGO, ANTONIO. Part Time Professor. B.S. in Physics, University of Puerto Rico; M.S. in Physics, University of Puerto Rico; M.S. in Computer Science, Evansville University.

Serway, R.A., & Vuille, C. (2017). College Physics. (11th ed.). Cengage Learning.

COMP 2025 DEVELOPMENT OF WEBPAGES

Discussion of the concepts of designing and developing WebPages. Application of the HTML and Javascript languages together with CSS for the creation of WebPages. Creation and adaptation of multimedia elements to be used in interactive pages.

3 credits

ROSARIO, JOEL, Part Time Professor. B.S. in Computer Science, Inter American University of Puerto Rico; M.S. in Open Information System, Inter American University of Puerto Rico.

NAVARRO, JOSE, Assistant Professor. B.S. in Computer Science Engineering, University of Puerto Rico; M.S. in Computer Engineering, University of Puerto Rico; M.S. in Electrical Engineering, University of Puerto Rico.

COMP 2315 STRUCTURED PROGRAMMING

Discussion of the fundamentals of programming of data types, declarations, control structures and subprograms. Includes modular programming and data transfer between modules, capability of variables, basic data structures, sets, registries, archives and pointers. Design, coding, verification, debugging errors and documentation. Requires 30 hours of lecture and 30 hours of closed laboratory. Requires additional time of open laboratory. Prerequisites: COMP 2110, 2120.

3 credits

NAVARRO, JOSE, Assistant Professor. B.S. in Computer Science Engineering, University of Puerto Rico; M.S. in Computer Engineering, University of Puerto Rico; M.S. in Electrical Engineering, University of Puerto Rico.

RIVERA, TERESA, Part Time Professor. B.S. in Computer Science Engineering, University of Puerto Rico; M.B.A. in Computing Engineering Management, University of Puerto Rico; M.S. in Computer in Engineering, University of Puerto Rico.

Johnsonbaugh, R. (2008). Discrete Mathematics. (7th ed.). New York: Macmillan

COMP 2502 DISCRETE COMPUTATIONAL STRUCTURES II

Theory of graph and trees. Flow webs. Counting and combinatorial analysis. Recurrence relations: Difference equation of first and second order. Algebraic structures of simple and double composition. Scalar and vectorial fields. Lineal transformations. Fine state machines. Requires additional time in an open lab. Prerequisite: COMP 2501.

3 credits

CALDERON, HELMUTH, Assistant Professor. B.A. in Mathematics, Chile University; M.S. in Mathematics, Chile University.

Johnsonbaugh, R. (2008). Discrete Mathematics. (7th ed.). New York: Macmillan

COMP 2800 DATABASES

Discussion of the components and operation of a basic database system. Description of the different data models for the design and implementation of a database by means of the use of the Organization-Relation model. Application of SQL. Requires 45 hours of lecture-lab. Prerequisite: COMP 2315.

3 credits

CARDONA SOTO, MELVIN J., Part Time Professor. B.A. in Computer Science, Inter American University of Puerto Rico; M.S. in Computer Engineering, University of Puerto Rico.

COMP 2900 DATA STRUCTURES

Design and implementation of objects from encapsulated data and their operations. Includes handling of data in sequential and dynamic structures, solution of problems with basic abstract data types such as, stacks, queues, arrays, trees and graphs. Emphasis on techniques for handling data such as searching and ordering. Implementation of different data structures through the use of recursive and non-recursive processes. Use of an object oriented programming language. Requires additional time in an open lab. Prerequisites: COMP 2400, 2501.

3 credits

RIVERA, JOSE, Part Time Professor. B.S. in Mathematics Computer Programming, Inter American University of Puerto Rico; M.S. in Computing Open Information System, Inter American University of Puerto Rico.

COMP 2970 SEMINAR AND PRACTICE

Research and study of important topics in computer science. Practice in skills and knowledge developed in the study of the Associate Degree in Applied Science in Computer Science. For Associate Degree candidates only.

3 credits

ROSA-ROSARIO, MARIA G., Associate Professor. B.A. Business Administration, University of Puerto Rico; M.A. in Business Education, New York University; D.B.A. in Information Technology, Aragozy University.

No Textbook

COMP 3015 WEB PROGRAMMING WITH DATABASES

Integration of databases and dynamic pages in the development of programs for the WEB. Programming of forms for data capture, validation and presentation. Prerequisite: COMP 2800.

3 credits

SANTIAGO, ELIZABETH, Part Time Professor. B.S. in Computer Science, University of Puerto Rico; M.S. in Open Information System, Inter American University of Puerto Rico,

CARDONA SOTO, MELVIN J., Part Time Professor. B.A. in Computer Science, Inter American University of Puerto Rico; M.S. in Computer Engineering, University of Puerto Rico.

COMP 397_ SPECIAL TOPICS

Analysis of current topics relevant to the computer science area. Prerequisite: Authorization from the Director of the Department.

1-6 credits

CARDONA SOTO, MELVIN J., Part Time Professor. B.A. in Computer Science, Inter American University of Puerto Rico; M.S. in Computer Engineering, University of Puerto Rico.

Depends on the selected topic.

COMP 4160 PARALLEL PROCESSING

Evolution of parallel processing in computation systems. Parallel-processing architecture. Pipeline principles. Vector and Matrix processing. Techniques for developing control algorithms for concurrent multiple processing. Applications of multi-process systems will be discussed. Requires additional time in an open lab. Prerequisites: COMP 3500, 4000.

3 credits

Criminal Justice (B.A.)

The Bachelor of Arts Degree in Criminal Justice focuses on criminal or forensic investigation. The Program's modern curriculum adjusts the knowledge, theory and techniques of the field of Criminal Justice to the demands of a dynamic and changing society. The curriculum is inter-disciplinary with branches of knowledge related to human behavior. The Program permits students to acquire personal and professional skills in accord with their interests and aptitudes. It also stresses the importance of the adequate development of attitudes and characteristics of the student's personality, while emphasizing knowledge of the causes and spread of crime, the methods and modern techniques of criminal justice, crime prevention, and rehabilitation. The Program is designed to: 1) prepare the student to occupy positions at the operational level in the field of the criminal justice system, both in the private and public sector, 2) upgrade the preparation of personnel offering services in these areas, 3) stimulate students to pursue graduate studies, and 4) permit students to put into practice the theoretical knowledge acquired in their studies through an internship experience in their area of major. All course requirements for a major in penology and criminal justice must be passed with a minimum grade of C.

Students who are candidates for the Internship must meet the requirements established by the University for this Program. They must complete or provide the following: internship application; satisfactory criminal background investigation; proof of immunizations; General Release; official transcript of credits; satisfactory official evaluation of the Registrar; three letters of recommendation; four pictures 2X2; and a letter from the coordinator of the Program to the Registrar.

In addition, students must meet the requirements stipulated by the practice center.

The curriculum is inter-disciplinary but emphasizes branches of knowledge related to human behavior. The requirements for the Bachelor of Arts Degree in Criminal Justice include the following: (1) 48 general education credits; (2) 40 core course credits; (3) 6 prescribed distributive (elective concentration) credits; (4) 21 concentration credits; and (5) 6 elective credits.

This program is authorized to be offered online.

General Education Requirements - 48 credits

Forty-eight (48) credits are required, as explained in the section “General Education Requirements for Bachelors’ Degrees.” In addition to the courses GEHS 2010F and GEHS 2011, students of this Program will select two courses, from the following alternatives in the Historic and Social Context Category: GEHS 2020, GEHS 4020, or GEHS 4030.

Core Course Requirements - 40 credits

CJUS	1000	Introduction to Criminology	3
CJUS	2050	Victims of Crime	3
CJUS	2090	Juvenile Justice System	3
CJUS	3025	Criminal Law	3
CJUS	3027	White Collar Crimes	3
CJUS	3300	Alternate Methods of Conflict Resolution	3
CJUS	4972	Seminar in Criminal Justice	3
POLS	1011	Introduction to Political Science	3
PSYC	1051	General Psychology I	3
PSYC	3001	Statistical Methods	3
SOCI	1030	Introduction to Sociology	3
SOCI	2080	Criminal Justice System	3
CJUS	4500	Social Scientific Research Techniques	4

Prescribed Distributive Requirements - 6 credits from the following courses:

CJUS	1010	Police and Community	3
CJUS	2010	Criminal Procedures in Justice System	3
CJUS	2075	Social Deviation	3
CJUS	2095	Ethics in Process of Prevention and Police Intervention	3
CJUS	3015	Women Faced with Crime	3
CJUS	3055	Federal Jurisdiction	3
CJUS	397_	Special Topics*	3
CJUS	4020	Alcoholism and Drug Addiction	3
CJUS	4914	Internship in Criminal Investigation	3
PSYC	4213	Psychopathology	3

Early Childhood Education (B.A.)

The Teacher Education Program is an answer to the needs and aspirations of a society in constant change. The Program is directed toward the professional formation of a teacher of excellent quality; i.e., one who can contribute in an effective manner to produce the changes deemed desirable in students, knowledgeable about the problems confronting education, and capable of collaborating in the process of change to improve the quality of both the teacher's life and that of others. The Program, therefore, seeks to achieve a greater integration of its components: professional courses, major courses and general education courses.

Teacher preparation emphasizes the development of those skills and attitudes that allow for the formation of a critical, flexible and creative mind that by using educational theories as the starting point is capable of identifying and posing problems, of carrying out research to find solutions and proposing adequate answers which can be verified through experimentation.

The new vision of teacher preparation requires a program of studies that provides a great number of related experiences that enables the construction of pedagogical knowledge and content. These experiences are characterized by continuous reflection, practice in real settings, research, and collaboration. The Program studies the relevance of content, the pedagogical model and tools that permit the solution of problems inherent in the teaching and learning processes in different contexts. In this Program of study, the general education, major, and core course components will be integrated.

Graduates of the Teacher Education Program should:

1. Be committed to the professionalization of their chosen field and help dignify the teaching profession with their performance.
2. Use critical reflection as a tool in pedagogical practice.
3. Recognize and use the classroom as a laboratory of human experiences that will increase and enrich the teaching-learning endeavor.
4. Utilize research as a resource for enriching and expanding knowledge and improving pedagogical practice.
5. Perform a pedagogical practice founded on the mastery of knowledge.
6. Be a leader in promoting change and innovation.
7. Conceive of education as a human process.
8. Understand how formal and informal education contribute to the development of the humanistic and scientific culture of society.
9. Be aware of the need for collaborative work as an essential component of their pedagogical practice.
10. Conceive of the oral and written language in their vernacular and second language as essential instruments for the teaching and learning process.
11. Be aware of their ethical and legal responsibilities to take positions and to contribute to the solution of problems.
12. Make effective use of technology.
13. Have a clear vision of the diverse ways in which populations are distributed.
14. Be committed to the practice and promotion of a better quality of life.

A student who successfully completes the University's B.A. in Early Childhood Education: Elementary Level Education (K-3), (4-6) or Pre-School and obtains passing scores on the General Knowledge Test, the Professional Education Test and the Subject Area Examination may qualify for a Florida Professional Certificate. For more information on Florida teacher certification requirements, visit on-line the Florida Educator Certification website or speak with a Center advisor. Students who want to take the teacher certification in Puerto Rico must have an intention to work as a teacher in Puerto Rico. THE UNIVERSITY DOES NOT WARRANT, REPRESENT, OR GUARANTEE THAT GRADUATES OF THE EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION PROGRAM WILL RECEIVE ANY TEACHING CERTIFICATE OR BE LICENSED TO TEACH IN ANY JURISDICTION.

The Teacher Education Program requires completion of a variety of field placements, as well as a supervised internship. To receive credit, students interested in the teaching internship must apply for and comply with the practice location requirements and application deadlines, as well as the University's degree program requirements. Students interested in applying for an internship must contact the Executive Director of the Cyber Study Center at least one semester before the student is qualified for and would like placement.

Students who have had previous satisfactory teaching experience may apply for an exemption from the teaching internship requirement from the University; however, said exception may not be acceptable to the particular state or territory teacher certification program to which the student wants to apply. This exemption will be subject to the following conditions:

1. The student has been teaching full-time for two academic years within the last four years as verified by the principal of the school.
2. The student pays 50% of the registration cost of the courses EDUC 3015 and EDUC 4013 for the final validation of the credits.
3. The experience to be credited by the University corresponds to the requirements for the degree that the student hopes to obtain from the University.

Admission Requirements for the Teacher Education Program

All students admitted to the University who seek admission to the Teacher Education Program will be classified under the PRE-PEM until they are officially admitted to the PEM major of their interest.

When requesting admission and readmission to the Teacher Education Program, students must meet the following additional admission requirements:

1. Have a minimum general point average of 2.50 at the university level.
2. Have earned a minimum of 18 university credits in, among other courses, these courses:
 - a. EDUC 1080 (Field Experiences in the Educational Scenario I), or EDUC 2890 (Field Experiences in Educational Scenario II), with a minimum grade of "B".*

3. Submit, in the corresponding academic department, the Application for Admission to the Teacher Education Program.
4. Students will have three (3) semesters or four (4) trimesters to complete the admission requirements. If they do not complete these requirements in the required time, they must choose another field of study.

*Students presenting official evidence of having worked under a teacher during a semester or more may apply for an exemption from taking the course EDUC 1080 – Field Experiences in Educational Scenario I.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Requirements for the Teacher Education Program

1. To remain in the Teacher Education Program, students must finish the academic year with a minimum general grade index as indicated below:
 - a. 47 credits or less: 2.50
 - b. 48-71 credits: 2.75
 - c. 72-95 credits: 2.90
 - d. 96 or more credits: 3.00
2. Student must comply with the institutional norm of credits attempted and approved.
3. Students who do not meet the required grade point index to remain in the Program will be placed on probation for a period no greater than two academic semesters or three trimesters.
4. Students who do not reach the required grade point index during the probationary period will be dropped from the Teacher Education Program.
5. Students dropped from the Teacher Education Program may request admission to or change their major to another field of study.

Admission Requirements for the Course Clinical Experiences in the Educational Scenario II (EDUC 4013) or Practice Teaching

For students admitted after August 2009, the admission requirements for the Course Clinical Experiences in the Educational Scenario II (EDUC 4013) include the following: students must have:

Special Education (B.A.)

The Bachelor of Arts Degree in Education in Special Education aims to develop a professional in special education properly prepared with the necessary knowledge, skills and attitudes so that he may provide interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary services to the student population with disabilities.

The Program is directed to prepare a professional who can effectively intervene with the families of the student population with disabilities, as well as with the other related professionals involved with this population. The educational professional will have a base to offer educational services in inclusive classrooms, in other natural environments, and in special classrooms.

Teacher Education Program - Theoretical and Methodological Frame

The Teacher Education Program (TEP) has a psycho philosophical foundation of a behaviorist, constructivist and humanist character. This approach can be considered as an eclectic conceptual model, which allows the Program to integrate, in an organized way, principles of the three theoretical frames in its curricular designs and in its pedagogical practice leading to the formation of the future teacher. This frame of theoretical and methodological reference will serve as a guide of the TEP for decision making and actions related to its development and its curricular revision and assessment processes, in harmony with the highest standards of quality and educational excellence.

It could be indicated, that although the TEP is based on an eclectic conceptual paradigm, it gives more emphasis to the constructivist and humanist theoretical perspectives. Under the constructivist perspective the aspiring teacher is considered as an active and totally reflective person in his professional formation process. On the other hand, the humanist approach orients the educational process of the future teacher towards his integral development as a being human, in such a way, that he contributes his competencies of knowledge, skills, attitudes and values to improve the quality of life of his students and society.

It is important to mention that during the last half of the last century, and during the part of the current century that has past, education in Puerto Rico has been framed, generally, in two learning theories: the behavioral theory and the cognitive theory. In the last decades the idea of a constructivist approach in learning and in the curriculum has acquired particular interest among educators. The psychological frame of constructivism is delimited by cognitive theories of learning, and within the curriculum of the TEP, it is founded on a humanist basis of education.

From the perspective of the philosophy and psychology of education, constructivism presents a coherent explanation of how a person learns by means of an active process of construction of knowledge through significant experiences, whereas the humanist vision in the curriculum promotes the professional and social commitment of the future teacher to attend to the educational needs and interests of the diverse student populations, with sensitivity. This implies that all teacher education programs must provide a wide variety of educational experiences for the academic formation of the aspiring teachers, directed toward the maximum development of a pedagogical culture. These practical and formative educational experiences will permit the future teacher to establish a connection between the theoretical knowledge and the pedagogical practice, in a pertinent context of human formation.

In order to give direction to its vision, mission and declaration of goals statements, the TEP uses the professional standards of teachers established by the Puerto Rico Department of Education and by the CAEP. These standards have as their main purpose to delineate the professional characteristics that the teacher must have to achieve that the students develop, in an integral way, their capacities and potentialities to the maximum in all dimensions as human beings, within a context of a culture of peace and acceptance of diversity. In addition, these standards establish the indicators of the qualities that the teachers must have to facilitate their students' learning of knowledge, skills and attitudes. It is important to indicate that the standards also serve the teacher as parameters for him to reflect on his continuous professional development and how this must be in harmony with the learning needs of his students.

In synthesis, the task of educational formation is a complex one and is a great social responsibility. In order to assume this responsibility, the TEP has designed a curriculum focused on how to prepare the teachers that society needs and demands, as an effective means to improve its quality of life.

Vision

The Program aspires to develop a series of integrated educational experiences, focused on the professional formation of a teacher of excellence. That is to say, that the teacher will contribute to the educational scenario with his professional competencies of knowledge, skills and attitudes necessary to promote changes and answers adapted to the educational environment. Primarily, the Program aims to prepare a teacher, who is knowledgeable of the problems of education in Puerto Rico and in other countries, in such a way that he will be able to collaborate in the process of constructive changes that will improve his quality of life and that of others.

Mission

The Program is directed to the formation of teachers within a curriculum that provides an accumulation of articulated experiences which, at the same time, provides space for the construction of the pedagogical knowledge and content that will develop the future teacher. These experiences will be characterized by continuous reflection, practice in real scenarios, research, collaboration, relevance of the contents, pedagogical modeling and the search and use of means that will provide solutions to the typical problems of the teaching-learning processes in different contexts. In this curriculum the components of the general education, core and major courses will be integrated.

Goals

In harmony with the vision and the mission for the TEP, the following goals, in coherence with the profile of competencies of graduates of the Program, are established.

1. Develop educational professionals focused on the mastery of the knowledge of the discipline within the context of a scientific, pedagogical and humanist culture.
2. Promote research, the management of information and the use of technology as means to generate the production and construction of knowledge that will result in the improvement of pedagogical practice within the education system.
3. Develop education professionals, who are sensitive to the needs and interests of the diverse social groups that exist in the population, within a context of human transformation.
4. Promote the solution of problem related to the educational environment within the frame of ethical, legal and social responsibility that regulates the profession.
5. Develop educational leaders committed to their professional development as a means to promote a better pedagogical practice and, therefore, a better quality of life within the context of a culture of peace.

General Objectives of the Teacher Education Program

The Program aims to achieve the following general objectives:

1. Apply, in an integrated manner, theoretical and methodological knowledge to the pedagogical practice in the educational scenario.
2. Use research, the sources of information and technological advances on which to base the development of educational innovations.
3. Show an attitude of acceptance and sensitivity to the educational needs and interests presented by the diverse student populations.
4. Apply the ethical, legal and social dimensions in the processes of problem solving and decision making related to the practice of the profession in the different educational scenarios.
5. Show commitment to the continuous improvement of the required professional competencies in the field of education.

The Teacher Education Program is an answer to the needs and aspirations of a society in constant change. The mission and goals of Inter American University of Puerto Rico, the Teacher Education Program provides a framework of integrated educational experiences. The Program is directed toward the professional formation of a teacher of excellent quality; i.e., one who can contribute in an effective manner to produce the changes deemed desirable in students, knowledgeable about the problems confronting education, and capable of collaborating in the process of change to improve the quality of both the teacher's life and that of others. The Program, therefore, seeks to achieve a greater integration of its components: professional courses, major courses and general education courses.

Teacher preparation emphasizes the development of those skills and attitudes that allow for the formation of a critical, flexible and creative mind that by using educational theories as the starting point is capable of identifying and posing problems, of carrying out research to find solutions and proposing adequate answers which can be verified through experimentation.

The new vision of teacher preparation requires a program of studies that provides a great number of related experiences that enables the construction of pedagogical knowledge and content. These experiences are characterized by continuous reflection, practice in real settings, research, and collaboration. The Program studies the relevance of content, the pedagogical model and tools that permit the solution of problems inherent in the teaching and learning processes in different contexts. In this Program of study, the general education, major, and core course components will be integrated.

Special Education Major Objectives

1. Analyze the history, etiology, prevalence, incidence and the legal basis for regulating special education services.

2. Analyze the process for identifying, evaluating and diagnosing special education populations.
3. Evaluate the importance of the collaboration process and providing guidance to parents, teachers and other staff.
4. Evaluate appropriate educational techniques and activities for the inclusion, integration and management of special education students.
5. Identify educational theories that can be used with special education students.
6. Analyze the terms diagnosis, evaluation, and assessment and their relationship with the teaching and learning process of exceptional students.
7. Design and analyze a formal test to use in the student evaluation process in one of the following areas of development: cognitive, socio-emotional, language, motor, personal help, or perceptual.
8. Develop an Educational Individualized Program (I.E.P.) based on the results obtained from the student's assessment process and evaluate its relationship to the planning process.
9. Incorporate the inculcation of values in teaching activities.
10. Analyze the terms technology, educational technology, technological assistance, adapted materials, alternative assessment, and reasonable accommodation and their relationship with the teaching and learning process of exceptional students.
11. Discuss the parts of the I.E.P and analyze them at different educational levels.
12. Analyze strategies, methods and teaching techniques for exceptional students. Define the terms strategies, methods and teaching techniques.
13. Design instructional plans for different exceptionalities and educational levels. Elaborate operational objectives. Apply appropriate methods and techniques in the writing of plans for the development and teaching of reading, writing, mathematics and perceptual skills.
14. Design demonstration classes incorporating technology for different exceptionalities and educational levels. Adapt the methods and techniques for teaching in curricular areas.

Profile of the Competencies of Graduates

This Program is designed to develop the general competencies, tied to the core courses that will permit students to:

Knowledge

To know and understand:

1. The philosophical, psychological and sociological foundations that serve as a base for education and give direction to the pedagogical practice.
2. The processes of construction of cognitive, affective and psychomotor learning through the different stages of human development.

4. The laws, regulations and procedures of the educational system, as well as the ethical, legal and social implications of their professional performance.
5. The implications and importance of the integration of parents and other sectors of society in the educational task of the school community.

Skills

1. Integrate into the pedagogical practice the theoretical principles that serve as the basis for education.
2. Plan student learning by integrating educational strategies with a scientific base into instructional design.
3. Use a variety of teaching strategies to facilitate the effective learning of the complexity of the concepts, skills and attitudes of the subject matter they teach.
4. Apply the complementary processes of evaluation, assessment and measurement to determine the effectiveness of the teaching-learning processes and make decisions, which facilitate the improvement of all students' learning.
5. Apply research and the technological advances as resources to expand knowledge and to innovate and improve the pedagogical practice.
6. Use the existing computerized and educational resources to integrate technology in their teaching area or discipline.
7. Use a variety of educational and technological resources to facilitate learning in diverse student populations.
8. Use communication skills in an effective way to develop in the students the understanding of how they learn.

Attitudes

1. Show respect and tolerance to individual and cultural differences of students in the educational scenario.
2. Show a positive and binding attitude between professional development and the academic needs of the students.
3. Show a critical and creative attitude towards the management of information available in different sources related to the teaching discipline and to the field of education.
4. Assume leadership roles and professional responsibility in the different educational scenarios and communitarian contexts to promote learning and the integral development of students.

The Orlando Cyber Study Center offers study programs for the Bachelor of Arts degree in Special Education. The University's B.A. in Special Education qualifies eligible students to apply for a valid standard teaching certificate issued by the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Eligibility is subject to change by the Puerto Rico Department of Education, but presently requires that students be at least 18, maintain an overall GPA and major GPA of 3.00 (if graduating on or after 2010), pass the Pruebas de Certificación de Maestros, and provide personal and professional documentation.

A student who successfully completes the University's B.A. in Special Education and obtains passing scores on the General Knowledge Test, the Professional Education Test and the Subject Area Examination may qualify for a Florida Professional Certificate. For more information on Florida teacher certification requirements, visit on-line the Florida Educator Certification website or speak with a Center advisor. Students who want to take the teacher certification in Puerto Rico must have an intention to work as a teacher in Puerto Rico. THE UNIVERSITY DOES NOT WARRANT, REPRESENT, OR GUARANTEE THAT

GRADUATES OF THE EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION PROGRAM WILL RECEIVE ANY TEACHING CERTIFICATE OR BE LICENSED TO TEACH IN ANY JURISDICTION.

The Teacher Education Program requires completion of a variety of field placements, as well as a supervised internship. To receive credit, students interested in the teaching internship must apply for and comply with the School District's requirements and application deadlines, as well as the University's degree program requirements. Students interested in applying for an internship must contact the Executive Director of the Cyber Study Center at least 10 months before the student is qualified for and would like placement.

Students who have had previous satisfactory teaching experience may apply for an exemption from the teaching internship requirement from the University; however, said exception may not be acceptable to the particular state or territory teacher certification program to which the student wants to apply. This exemption will be subject to the following conditions:

1. The student has been teaching full-time for two academic years within the last four years as verified by the principal of the school.
2. The student pays 50% of the registration cost of the courses EDUC 3015 and EDUC 4013 for the final validation of the credits.

The experience to be credited by the University corresponds to the requirements for the degree that the student hopes to obtain from the University.

Requirements for the Bachelor of Arts Degree in Special Education include the following: (1) 54 general education credits, (2) 37 core course credits, (3) 27 major credits, and (4) 3 elective credits, all as set forth in more detail on the next pages.

Fifty four (54) credits are required in General Education for this Program. In addition to GEHS 2001F, students will take GEHS 3020, 4020 and 4030 in the Historic and Social Context category. Students will take courses GEPE 4040 and GEPE 3010 or 3020 to fulfill the six credits required in the Philosophical and Esthetic Thought category. Students of this Program are exempt from taking the course GEMA 1000 from the Basic Skills in Mathematics category. Instead they will take GEMA 1001 and GEMA 1002.

The academic progress requirements for students in the Teacher Education Program are the following: (1) comply with all academic progress norms established in the General Catalog, (2) comply with the following requirements regarding general grade point index; (a) 47 credits or less – minimum of 2.50, (b) 47-71 credits – minimum of 2.75, (c) 72-95 credits – minimum of 2.90, and (d) 96 or more credits – minimum of 3.00.

In order to fulfill the graduation requirements for a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Teacher Education a student must: (1) achieve a minimum general grade point index of 3.00, (2) achieve a minimum grade point index of 3.00 in the core courses, (3) achieve a minimum grade point index of 3.00 in the major and in the specialization, (4) achieve a minimum grade of "B" in EDUC 4013, and (5) complete satisfactorily all academic requirements.

Students in the Bachelor of Arts Program in Special Education are exempt from taking the courses EDUC 4050 and 3013 from the Education Program Core Courses Requirements.

This program is authorized to be offered online.

Teaching of English as a Second Language at the Secondary Level (B.A.)

The major in the teaching of English as a second language at the secondary level is based on the fundamental developmental principles that individuals are capable of thinking, analyzing and evaluating their learning processes. It is expected that the graduates of this Program will be able to evaluate themselves through constant reflection. For this reason, the Program for the teaching of English as a second language at the secondary level has as its base the accepted fundamentals, theories and methodologies as well as their application in the classroom. This permits graduates from this Program to incorporate innovative technology for teaching and evaluation into the classroom.

They will keep up-to-date with the curricular guides regarding changes and adjustments that should be made when the student population they are attending requires it. This Program is designed with the goal of providing the theoretical base and the practical training needed by future teachers of English in secondary schools. This implies knowledge of:

1. The theory, methodology and application of curricular design.
2. The design of materials in English as a second language.
3. The theory and application of linguistics, the acquisition of English as a second language, the phonetics of United States English and the four language arts.
4. A comparative analysis of English and Spanish.
5. Evaluation and assessment in the classroom.
6. Adolescent literature in English.
7. Children's literature in English.
8. A solid base in writing, oral communication, grammar and the literary genres in English.

Teacher Education Program - Theoretical and Methodological Frame

The Teacher Education Program (TEP) has a psycho philosophical foundation of a behaviorist, constructivist and humanist character. This approach can be considered as an eclectic conceptual model, which allows the Program to integrate, in an organized way, principles of the three theoretical frames in its curricular designs and in its pedagogical practice leading to the formation of the future teacher. This frame of theoretical and methodological reference will serve as a guide of the TEP for decision making and actions related to its development and its curricular revision and assessment processes, in harmony with the highest standards of quality and educational excellence.

It could be indicated, that although the TEP is based on an eclectic conceptual paradigm, it gives more emphasis to the constructivist and humanist theoretical perspectives. Under the constructivist perspective the aspiring teacher is considered as an active and totally reflective person in his professional formation process. On the other hand, the humanist approach orients the educational process of the future teacher towards his integral development as a being human, in such a way, that he contributes his competencies of knowledge, skills, attitudes and values to improve the quality of life of his students and society.

It is important to mention that during the last half of the last century, and during the part of the current century that has past, education in Puerto Rico has been framed, generally, in two learning theories: the behavioral theory and the cognitive theory. In the last decades the idea of a constructivist approach in learning and in the curriculum has acquired particular interest among educators. The psychological frame of constructivism is delimited by cognitive theories of learning, and within the curriculum of the TEP, it is founded on a humanist basis of education.

From the perspective of the philosophy and psychology of education, constructivism presents a coherent explanation of how a person learns by means of an active process of construction of knowledge through significant experiences, whereas the humanist vision in the curriculum promotes the professional and social commitment of the future teacher to attend to the educational needs and interests of the diverse student populations, with sensitivity. This implies that all teacher education programs must provide a wide variety of educational experiences for the academic formation of the aspiring teachers, directed toward the maximum development of a pedagogical culture. These practical and formative educational experiences will permit the future teacher to establish a connection between the theoretical knowledge and the pedagogical practice, in a pertinent context of human formation.

In order to give direction to its vision, mission and declaration of goals statements, the TEP uses the professional standards of teachers established by the Puerto Rico Department of Education and by the CAEP. These standards have as their main purpose to delineate the professional characteristics that the teacher must have to achieve that the students develop, in an integral way, their capacities and potentialities to the maximum in all dimensions as human beings, within a context of a culture of peace and acceptance of diversity. In addition, these standards establish the indicators of the qualities that the teachers must have to facilitate their students' learning of knowledge, skills and attitudes. It is important to indicate that the standards also serve the teacher as parameters for him to reflect on his continuous professional development and how this must be in harmony with the learning needs of his students.

In synthesis, the task of educational formation is a complex one and is a great social responsibility. In order to assume this responsibility, the TEP has designed a curriculum focused on how to prepare the teachers that society needs and demands, as an effective means to improve its quality of life.

Vision

The Program aspires to develop a series of integrated educational experiences, focused on the professional formation of a teacher of excellence. That is to say, that the teacher will contribute to the educational scenario with his professional competencies of knowledge, skills and attitudes necessary to promote changes and answers adapted to the educational environment. Primarily, the Program aims to prepare a teacher, who is knowledgeable of the problems of education in Puerto Rico and in other countries, in such a way that he will be able to collaborate in the process of constructive changes that will improve his quality of life and that of others.

Mission

The Program is directed to the formation of teachers within a curriculum that provides an accumulation of articulated experiences which, at the same time, provides space for the construction of the pedagogical knowledge and content that will develop the future teacher. These experiences will be characterized by continuous reflection, practice in real scenarios, research, collaboration, relevance of the contents, pedagogical modeling and the search and use of means that will provide solutions to the typical problems of the teaching-learning processes in different contexts. In this curriculum the components of the general education, core and major courses will be integrated.

Goals

In harmony with the vision and the mission for the TEP, the following goals, in coherence with the profile of competencies of graduates of the Program, are established.

1. Develop educational professionals focused on the mastery of the knowledge of the discipline within the context of a scientific, pedagogical and humanist culture.
2. Promote research, the management of information and the use of technology as means to generate the production and construction of knowledge that will result in the improvement of pedagogical practice within the education system.

3. Develop education professionals, who are sensitive to the needs and interests of the diverse social groups that exist in the population, within a context of human transformation.
4. Promote the solution of problem related to the educational environment within the frame of ethical, legal and social responsibility that regulates the profession.
5. Develop educational leaders committed to their professional development as a means to promote a better pedagogical practice and, therefore, a better quality of life within the context of a culture of peace.

General Objectives

The Program aims to achieve the following general objectives:

1. Apply, in an integrated manner, theoretical and methodological knowledge to the pedagogical practice in the educational scenario.
2. Use research, the sources of information and technological advances on which to base the development of educational innovations.
3. Show an attitude of acceptance and sensitivity to the educational needs and interests presented by the diverse student populations.
4. Apply the ethical, legal and social dimensions in the processes of problem solving and decision making related to the practice of the profession in the different educational scenarios.
5. Show commitment to the continuous improvement of the required professional competencies in the field of education.

The Teacher Education Program is an answer to the needs and aspirations of a society in constant change. The mission and goals of Inter American University of Puerto Rico, the Teacher Education Program provides a framework of integrated educational experiences. The Program is directed toward the professional formation of a teacher of excellent quality; i.e., one who can contribute in an effective manner to produce the changes deemed desirable in students, knowledgeable about the problems confronting education, and capable of collaborating in the process of change to improve the quality of both the teacher's life and that of others. The Program, therefore, seeks to achieve a greater integration of its components: professional courses, major courses and general education courses.

Teacher preparation emphasizes the development of those skills and attitudes that allow for the formation of a critical, flexible and creative mind that by using educational theories as the starting point is capable of identifying and posing problems, of carrying out research to find solutions and proposing adequate answers which can be verified through experimentation.

The new vision of teacher preparation requires a program of studies that provides a great number of related experiences that enables the construction of pedagogical knowledge and content. These experiences are characterized by continuous reflection, practice in real settings, research, and collaboration. The Program studies the relevance of content, the pedagogical model and tools that permit the solution of problems inherent in the teaching and learning processes in different contexts. In this Program of study, the general education, major, and core course components will be integrated.

Profile of the Competencies of Graduates

This Program is designed to develop the general competencies, tied to the core courses that will permit students to:

Knowledge

To know and understand:

1. The philosophical, psychological and sociological foundations that serve as a base for education and give direction to the pedagogical practice.
2. The processes of construction of cognitive, affective and psychomotor learning through the different stages of human development.
3. The importance of the creation of a harmonious physical and social environment that is adjusted to the diversity of the social groups and to the individual needs and interests of the students.
4. The laws, regulations and procedures of the educational system, as well as the ethical, legal and social implications of their professional performance.
5. The implications and importance of the integration of parents and other sectors of society in the educational task of the school community.

Skills

1. Integrate into the pedagogical practice the theoretical principles that serve as the basis for education.
2. Plan student learning by integrating educational strategies with a scientific base into instructional design.
3. Use a variety of teaching strategies to facilitate the effective learning of the complexity of the concepts, skills and attitudes of the subject matter they teach.
4. Apply the complementary processes of evaluation, assessment and measurement to determine the effectiveness of the teaching-learning processes and make decisions, which facilitate the improvement of all students' learning.
5. Apply research and the technological advances as resources to expand knowledge and to innovate and improve the pedagogical practice.
6. Use the existing computerized and educational resources to integrate technology in their teaching area or discipline.

7. Use a variety of educational and technological resources to facilitate learning in diverse student populations.
8. Use communication skills in an effective way to develop in the students the understanding of how they learn.

Attitudes

1. Show respect and tolerance to individual and cultural differences of students in the educational scenario.
2. Show a positive and binding attitude between professional development and the academic needs of the students.
3. Show a critical and creative attitude towards the management of information available in different sources related to the teaching discipline and to the field of education.
4. Assume leadership roles and professional responsibility in the different educational scenarios and communitarian contexts to promote learning and the integral development of students.

The Orlando Cyber Study Center offers study programs for the Bachelor of Arts degree in Special Education. The University's B.A. in Special Education qualifies eligible students to apply for a valid standard teaching certificate issued by the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Eligibility is subject to change by the Puerto Rico Department of Education, but presently requires that students be at least 18, maintain an overall GPA and major GPA of 3.00 (if graduating on or after 2010), pass the Pruebas de Certificación de Maestros, and provide personal and professional documentation.

A student who successfully completes the University's B.A. in English as a Second Language at the Secondary Level and obtains passing scores on the General Knowledge Test, the Professional Education Test and the Subject Area Examination may qualify for a Florida Professional Certificate. For more information on Florida teacher certification requirements, visit on-line the Florida Educator Certification website or speak with a Center advisor. Students who want to take the teacher certification in Puerto Rico must have an intention to work as a teacher in Puerto Rico. THE UNIVERSITY DOES NOT WARRANT, REPRESENT, OR GUARANTEE THAT GRADUATES OF THE EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION PROGRAM WILL RECEIVE ANY TEACHING CERTIFICATE OR BE LICENSED TO TEACH IN ANY JURISDICTION.

The Teacher Education Program requires completion of a variety of field placements, as well as a supervised internship. To receive credit, students interested in the teaching internship must apply for and comply with the School District's requirements and application deadlines, as well as the University's degree program requirements. Students interested in applying for an internship must contact the Executive Director of the Cyber Study Center at least 10 months before the student is qualified for and would like placement.

Students who have had previous satisfactory teaching experience may apply for an exemption from the teaching internship requirement from the University; however, said exemption may not be acceptable to the particular state or territory teacher certification program to which the student wants to apply. This exemption will be subject to the following conditions:

3. The student has been teaching full-time for two academic years within the last four years as verified by the principal of the school.
4. The student pays 50% of the registration cost of the courses EDUC 3015 and EDUC 4013 for the final validation of the credits.

The experience to be credited by the University corresponds to the requirements for the degree that the student hopes to obtain from the University.

This program is authorized to be offered online.

Office Systems Administration (B.A.)

The Bachelor of Arts in Office Systems Administration responds to the need for professionals of administrative support with knowledge in the operation of electronic systems, with the knowledge, techniques, procedures, and skills required to perform successfully in the office. This program offers the cultural background and the basic knowledge of office administration that allow the professional administrative support personnel to participate effectively in decision-making, analysis of data, managing and processing of information, oral and written communication and in establishing effective interpersonal relations. During the first years of studies, the student is offered the knowledge and skills of the associate degree, while during the last two years, there is emphasis on the knowledge and skills at the professional or bachelor degree levels. This program aims to prepare professional administrative support personnel with the skills and knowledge necessary to explore self-employment as a viable alternative in other professional careers. In addition, it aspires to prepare self-directed students that can work in their future job with a minimum of supervision and that have the ability to work in a team. The Bachelor of Arts in Office Systems Administration responds to the need in the modern workplace for professionals with the knowledge, techniques, and skills in electronic and other office management systems required to supervise an office successfully. This program enables students to participate effectively in decision-making, analysis of data, managing and processing information, communicating orally and in writing, and establishing effective interpersonal relations with employees in a cross-cultural environment.

This program is authorized to be offered online.

Studies in Religion (B.A.)

The courses in religion are in harmony with the Christian ecumenical orientation of the University and the related official norms appearing in this Catalog under "Religious Life Policy". The Institutional goal is to develop individuals with an ecumenical perspective who: 1) understand the Christian faith and its implications for our culture; 2) know and respect the most important aspects of the world's major religions, and 3) know and appreciate the study of religion in a university curriculum which maintains a dynamic and harmonious relationship between faith and critical reasoning; and between religion and the arts and sciences. The Bachelor of Arts degree in Studies in Religion aims to forge facilitators capable of offering ecumenical instruction in agreement with the needs of society. The requirements for the Bachelor of Arts degree in Studies in Religion Marketing include 48 general education credits, 54 major course credits, and 20 elective credits.

This program is authorized to be offered online.
